And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hands on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. ## "The Our Father": An In-Depth Examination. Conclusion

Beloved Parishioners,

I wish to conclude my reflections on Our Lord's prayer which I started sharing with you last week. As we conclude this reflection today, we look at the practical implications and how this prayer should guide us in our daily life activities. The Lord's prayer I would wish to reiterate is a simple prayer but encompasses all that we can do in prayer. Following the spiritual writer's reflection on prayer, it should follow a sequence of Praise/Worship, Penance, Petition and Thanksgiving and all these are found in the Our Father. Our Lord uses it to teach us how to pray and the best approach to prayer.

Throughout Church history, theologians and Church Fathers have explored the depth of the "Our Father." For instance, St. Augustine and St. Thomas Aquinas provided extensive commentaries on its meaning and implications. Their reflections have influenced Catholic teaching and devotional practices, offering insights into the prayer's significance. In catechetical instruction, the "Our Father" is often studied as a comprehensive summary of Christian doctrine. The Catechism of the Catholic Church devotes significant attention to its meaning and relevance, teaching that the prayer encapsulates the entirety of Christian faith and practice. Further, the "Our Father" also plays a role in ecumenical dialogues, representing a common heritage among Christian denominations and fostering unity among different branches of Christianity.

What are the practical things we can gain from this writing? We learn that praying the "Our Father" invites us to personal reflection and meditation on its various petitions. This is so because each line can be a focal point for spiritual contemplation, prompting us to examine our lives in light of its teachings. Personalizing this prayer can deepen our understanding of God's will and cultivate a spirit of gratitude and dependence. Further, the "Our Father" encourages our growth in practical virtues such as humility, forgiveness, and reliance on God. By praying the petition for daily bread, we acknowledge our dependence on God and develop a sense of gratitude. What is more? The call to forgive others fosters compassion and reconciliation, aligning our personal conduct with Christian principles. Finally, by reflecting on and embracing the teachings of the "Our Father" we can deepen our relationship with God and live out the principles of our faith in our daily lives. As we say this prayer silently and meditatively daily, let us live it out knowing that He Himself hears the supplications of our heart.

Theme: Be Strong, Fear Not for Your God Comes to Save You

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B, September 8, 2024

First Reading Isaiah 35:4-7, Second Reading James 2:1-5, Gospel Mark 7:31-37

The passage of today's first reading from the Prophet Isaiah may have been written during the Babylonian exile. It was a very difficult moment in the life and history of Israel when they seem to have lost all hope of returning to Jerusalem. It was amid this hopeless situation that the prophecy of Isaiah comes to console and encourage the people, "Thus, says the Lord, say to those whose hearts are frightened or the fearful heart, Be strong, fear not. Here comes your God, he comes with vindication he comes to save you." God not only offers those words of hope and courage, but he assures them that He comes to save them. He goes further to prophecy that "the eyes of the blind be opened, the ears of the deaf be cleared and the lame leap like a stag and the tongue of the mute will sing."

The words of Isaiah in the first reading resonate with the miracle Jesus performed in today's Gospel of the healing of a deaf man who had a speech impediment. The miracle manifests God's promises would always come to fulfillment in our lives. God is a God whose words are effective and that was what the action of Jesus demonstrated in the healing when He said be opened and the ears of the deaf opened immediately. The word of Isaiah equally recalls Jesus' manifesto we read in Luke 4:18-19 when He entered the synagogue on a Sabbath and He was given the scroll to read and He said, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at the liberty those who are oppressed to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

These words of hope, encouragement and faith spoken through the Prophet Isaiah are the same words that God speaks to us today. God speaks to each of us don't be afraid, be strong and believe that He knows every single situation you are in it now and will come to save you. Why does He tell us to be strong and not fear? Because fear is the worst enemy to our faith in God. When we are frightened, we lose confidence in ourselves and God. When we are strong, we become more open to see the hand of God in our lives without panicking. When we are strong, we are more open to see the miracle of God happen than when we are frightened.

The message of today's Sunday is very profound in our lives and in our society today where there is fear and uncertainty everywhere. No matter what we go through now, we are being told to be strong and fear not for Our God is coming to save us. This act of God coming to save us, as Isaiah's prophecy foretold, is manifested in Jesus' healing miracle. He performs this healing to demonstrate His power to heal us and liberate us from the evil that blocks us from hearing the mighty words of God that set us free. It is equally the evidence of His power and authority over sickness and health as well as His power over the forces of nature and evil forces.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Join us! Every third Saturday of each month
4:30 pm - 6:30 pm.

This intimate “small group” ministry assigns you to a new group every 3 months where you experience community with fellow parishioners, sharing a meal, your faith and life experiences.

(Times may change depending on your group)

“The small group setting allows for people to share their life stories...stories which we would never hear just meeting them at the church or at a meeting. We heard an incredible story. We now feel a connection with that fellow parishioner, a bond that wasn’t there before. Our relationship is forever changed.”

-Sherry Ketner

“I love going to the homes, getting to know people better, and hearing their stories. This is great! I love it.”

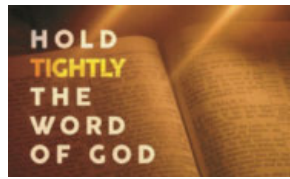

-Fr. Tony Okolo

“I got to meet some friends, and even got to know some people I have seen many times at church but never spent time with. Good company, good food, good stories – and best of all was sharing stories of faith. We build each other up.”

All Are Welcome

Marty Haugen

Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live, a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive. Built of hopes and dreams and visions, rock of faith and vault of grace; Here the love of Christ shall end divisions.

Refrain: All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

Let us build a house where prophets speak, and words are strong and true, where all God's children dare to seek to dream God's reign a new. Here the cross shall stand as witness And as symbol of God's grace. Here as one we claim the faith of Jesus.

Glory to God

Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our Prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

Prayer of St. Francis

Sebastian Temple

Make me a channel of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me bring your love. Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord, and where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Refrain: Oh, Master, grant that I may never seek so much to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved, as to love, with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace. Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope. Where there is darkness only light, and where there's sadness ever joy.

COMMUNION SONG

One Bread, One Body

John Foley

Refrain: One bread, one body, one Lord of all, one cup of blessing which we bless. And we, though many, throughout the earth, we are one body in this one Lord.

Many the gifts, many the works, one in the Lord of all.

Grain for the fields, scattered and grown, gathered to one for all.

CLOSING SONG

On Eagle's Wings

Michael Joncas

You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord, who abide in his shadow for life, say to the Lord: " My refuge, my rock in whom I trust!"

And he will raise you up on eagle's wings, bear you on the breath of dawn, make you to shine like the sun, and hold you in the palm of his hand.

The snare of the fowler will never capture you, and famine will bring you no fear; under his wings your refuge, his faithfulness your shield.

CANTO DE ENTRADA

---

Alabaré

Manuel J Alonso, Pagan

Alabaré, alabaré, alabaré a mi Señor.
Alabaré, alabaré, alabaré a mi Señor.

Juan vio el número de los redimidos y todos alababan al Señor. Unos oraban, otros cantaban, y todos alababan al Señor.

Todos unidos alegres cantamos gloria y alabanzas al Señor.

Gloria al Padre, Gloria al Hijo, y Gloria al Espíritu de amor.

Salmo 145
Alaba, alma mía, al Señor.

CANTO DE OFERTORIO

---

Cuan Grande es El

Stuart K. Hine

Señor, mi Dios, al contemplar los cielos, El firmamento y las estrellas mil, Al oír Tu voz en los potentes truenos Y ver billar el sol en tu cenit.

Mi corazón entona esta canción, ¡Cuan grande es El! ¡Cuan grande es El! Mi corazón entona esta canción, ¡Cuan grande es El! ¡Cuan grande es El!

Al recorrer los montes y los valles Y ver las bellas flores al pasar, Al escuchar el canto de las aves Y el murmurar del claro manantial.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la lucha; sé nuestro amparo contra la maldad y asechanzas del demonio. Pedimos suplicantes que Dios lo mantenga bajo su imperio; y tu, Príncipe de la milicia celestial, arroja al infierno, con el poder divino, a Satanás y a los otros espíritus malvados que andan por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.

Prayer to Saint Michael, the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

CANTO DE COMUNIÓN

Tú Cuerpo y Sangre, Señor

Eleazar Cortés

Déjanos disfrutar eternamente de tu divinidad por el misterio de tu amor, tu cuerpo y sangre, Señor.

Pan que del cielo bajó a darnos la eternidad.

Aquel que coma este pan ya nunca más morirá.

El Sacramento de amor que el mismo Cristo nos da.

Pan de justicia y verdad que nos alivia el dolor.

CANTO DE SALIDA

---

Volveré

Luis Dávalos

Hemos comulgado con tu cuerpo, unidos en tu corazón: las mentes, las almas y los cuerpos, inflamados en tu espíritu de amor.

Volveré, (volveré,) volveré, (volveré,) volveré, a mis hermanos, oh Jesús. Les diré, (les diré,) les diré, (les diré,) les diré, lo que me has hecho Tu, Señor.

Hemos recibido tu presencia, misterio de amor y de bondad, ahora hemos sido transformados, Tu eres yo, yo soy Tu en el amor.

The Unity Prayer

MY ADORABLE JESUS,

MAY OUR FEET JOURNEY TOGETHER.

MAY OUR HANDS GATHER IN UNITY.

MAY OUR HEARTS BEAT IN UNISON.

MAY OUR SOULS BE IN HARMONY.

MAY OUR THOUGHTS BE AS ONE.

MAY OUR EARS LISTEN TO

THE SILENCE TOGETHER.

MAY OUR GLANCES

PROFOUNDLY

PENETRATE EACH OTHER.

MAY OUR LIPS PRAY TOGETHER TO

GAIN MERCY FROM THE ETERNAL FATHER.

AMEN
