Moses and Jesus both attest to the fact that the work of the Spirit cannot be confined by an institution, and that no one can claim a monopoly of the Spirit's charism, or wisdom.

The Significance of the Liturgical Calendar and Feasts Part 1

Beloved Parishioners,

As we continue in the ordinary time of the year, which is the season we are in now, I wish to share some reflection with you on the significance of the Liturgical Calendar of the church.

The sage in Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 declares that "There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens," and nothing exemplifies this more in the Church than the Liturgical Calendar. The Liturgical Calendar organizes the Church's year into seasons and feasts that commemorate the major events in the life of Jesus Christ, the Virgin Mary, and key aspects of Christian theology.

Aside from demonstrating the unity of the Church expressed sufficiently through the uniform celebration of common feasts and seasons, the Liturgical Calendar essentially helps Christians remember and relive the key events of salvation history, from the Incarnation to the Resurrection. By observing these events annually, believers reaffirm their faith in the central mysteries of Christianity and their significance for personal and communal salvation. Furthermore, the Liturgical Calendar also provides a rhythm for worship, guiding the spiritual life of the community and helping Catholics connect individually to a broader Christian tradition, thus offering a way to live out shared beliefs and practices.

The origin of this calendar can be traced back to the early Church. Early Christians began by aligning their observances with Jewish festivals, such as the Passover and Pentecost, but as Christianity evolved, distinct Christian celebrations emerged which also led the early Christians to seek a way of organizing and unifying worship practices across the teeming and diverse Christian communities.

The major seasons contained in the Liturgical season include Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Easter, and Pentecost. Each of these seasons has its own liturgical color, scripture readings, and hymns, helping to emphasize different aspects of the Christian story and spiritual life. More so, the seasonal variation in the calendar enables believers to engage in a yearly cycle of biblical reflection and eschatological preparation. For instance, Advent is a time of anticipation and preparation for the celebration of Christ's birth, while Lent is a period of penance and reflection leading up to Easter.

The second part of this reflection would be concluded in next week's Pastor's Corner. I wish to use this opportunity to express the appreciation of the Parish to Tony Jorgensen who, along with their Pioneer Earthmovers Company, assisted us in paving the long trench in our parking lot that has been in bad shape. On behalf of the entire parish, we thank them for doing such a marvelous work for us at a highly discounted price. The Parish Council, the Building Committee and the Finance Council have been brainstorming on how to get our parking lot into good shape. I want to assure you, all my beloved parishioners, that we are not keeping quiet about it, but it is our financial constraint that has been the major challenge in putting it into a good shape. Any assistance from anyone or a corporate body towards this parking lot would be highly appreciated.

Finally, this week, I welcome Very Reverend Fr. Augustine Nwosu C.S.Sp. who is the Provincial Superior of Holy Ghost Congregation Southeast Province who is my superior. He is on a canonical visit to all the members of the Nigerian Southeast province working in the United States. It is my pleasure, on behalf of the Parish, to say a big welcome to him to our parish. We pray that as he continues his visit to other places in the United States, God's grace would be upon him.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Theme: Power in the Name of Jesus

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B, September 29, 2024

First Reading: Numbers 11:25-29, Second Reading: James 5:1-6, Gospel: Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

In today's gospel Jesus teaches the need to recognize the gifts of others even when they are not of our group. Jesus tells us also of the blessings and rewards that accompany those who are charitable to messengers of the gospel. Mark's Gospel of today, begins with John's questions to Jesus about an unknown exorcist who was driving out demons in Jesus' name. John's question might have been motivated by jealousy. The disciple of Jesus observed that the unknown exorcist invoked Jesus' name and was successful in his healing efforts. This unknown healer recognized the power of Jesus' name, yet he was not a follower of Jesus. In Jesus' reply, Jesus acknowledges that deeds of faith can precede the words of faith.

The first reading also presents us with the same issue of some people outside the group of prophets prophesying in the outside camp. Just as in the gospel reading the reason for Joshua's concern of these other prophets may not be unconnected with jealousy. Jesus and Moses in these two readings point out clearly to their disciples the danger of jealousy and warns them never to give in to any form of jealousy. One of the greatest evils of jealousy is that the person gains nothing from it. It rather destroys the person and the one you are envious of moves on higher. It is a sin that eats one up and benefits the individual nothing. The demonic possession described in the Gospel might be a form of mental illness, but the need for healing these syndromes was as real then as it is now. The possession here refers to anything that hinders or prevents us from being what God intends us to be. Anything that keeps us away from God's blessing can be the work of the demon who does not want us to enjoy God's goodness. It can be drugs or alcohol addiction, or any form of addiction or excessive fear of the unknown, or depression. These are not God's design for us because He wants us to have life in fullness. In Jn 10:10, the good news is that with strong invocation of the name of Jesus all these demonic influences would be destroyed. "God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name, which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee must bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth." (Phil 2:9-10) This confirms the power in the name of Jesus.

It is on this that Jesus invites us to sever off anything that causes us to sin. When He says if your eyes, foot, or hands cause you to sin that one should cut it off. It does not literally mean that one should use a knife to sever any part of the body but to avoid the danger of using it as a means of destruction. The reason Jesus emphasizes this is because our foot, eyes and hands are meant to be used to build the kingdom of God and when they are used in an improper direction, they become an agent of destruction and should be cut off.

Besides, a very important message taken from today's gospel is the blessings of charity done especially to someone because the person is God's prophet. It is a message of encouragement to all who make great sacrifices for the gospel preachers and church's mission. Jesus gives the assurance that such generosity to gospel preachers or mission work is not in vain even when it is not appreciated by the person.

A silver rose on a nine-month pilgrimage will be the centerpiece of a special prayer service at Our Lady of the Lake Roman Catholic Parish in Lake Havasu City, AZ on Sunday, September 29, 2024 at 2:00 pm. This service is sponsored by Knights of Columbus St. Thomas More Council 6442 to honor Our Lady of Guadalupe and express both international unity and dedication to the sanctity of human life.

The journey of the silver rose begins each year in March and ends on Dec. 12th, the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. During that time, Silver Roses travel from town to town along eight routes throughout North America. Several of those routes begin in Canada and end in Mexico.

The Silver Rose Program began in 1960, when the first rose – a real, live one – was blessed by a bishop in Ontario. The rose then traveled to New York and then to Texas where it was taken across the border into Mexico. The rose ended its pilgrimage at the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Monterrey on Dec. 12th, the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. To better ensure future annual trips, a silver rose was ultimately made. Today, due to the popularity of the program throughout the North American continent, eight silver roses travel unique routes.

In 2001, when Carl Anderson, Past Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus, expanded the Silver Rose Program, he commented: “Through [the Silver Rose Program] we honor not only Our Lady of Guadalupe and express the unity of the [Knights of Columbus], but we also reaffirm the Order’s dedication to the sanctity of human life. It is to the Blessed Mother that we turn in prayer as we work to end the Culture of Death that grips our society. As we think in terms of ‘One Life, One Rose,’ it is most appropriate that we turn to Our Lady of Guadalupe who made known her will through Juan Diego and the miracle of the roses.”

All members of the community are encouraged to join our Council in praying for a civilization of love and culture of life in our own country and throughout the world.
