The Significance of the Liturgical Calendar and Feasts Part 2

Beloved Parishioners,

This week we round off our reflection on the significance of the Liturgical Calendar and Feasts that we started last week. It is my hope that with this we would appreciate deeply the various liturgical feasts we have in the church. The write up is meant to help us understand what we do in the church and the various feasts we celebrate in our liturgies.

The season known as the Ordinary Time falls outside the major liturgical seasons and is divided into two segments: between Epiphany and Lent, and between Pentecost and Advent. It is a time for spiritual growth and reflection on the teachings of Jesus. The color used during Ordinary Time is green, symbolizing life and growth. Another significant feature of the Liturgical Calendar is the presence of Liturgical feasts, memorials of saints and solemnities. Feasts such as Christmas, Easter, and Pentecost commemorate significant events in Jesus's life and the early Church. Solemnities like the Assumption of Mary or the Feast of All Saints honor important figures and doctrines of the faith, reinforcing their importance in the life of the Church.

The practices associated with the Liturgical Calendar, including liturgical colors, hymns, prayers, and rituals, reinforce the themes and significance of each season and feast. The use of specific colors during different seasons helps to visually express the themes and moods of the calendar. For example, purple during Advent and Lent reflects penitence and preparation, while white during Christmas and Easter symbolizes joy and celebration; music and hymns are tailored to reflect the themes of each season. During Christmas, joyful and celebratory hymns highlight the birth of Christ, while Lent features more somber and reflective music. This musical dimension helps to enhance the spiritual experience and deepen the understanding of each season; rituals such as the lighting of Advent candles, the imposition of ashes on Ash Wednesday, and the decoration of the church for Christmas contribute to the atmosphere and focus of each season; special services, such as Midnight Mass on Christmas Eve or the Easter Vigil, provide opportunities for communal worship and reflection. These occasions often involve elaborate liturgical ceremonies and a heightened sense of celebration.

From the foregoing, we have learned that the Liturgical Calendar and its feasts are more than a mere schedule of events; they are a vital framework for living out the Christian faith. Each season and feast invite Catholics to enter into the mysteries of faith, celebrate the core tenets of Christianity, and live out their calling as followers of Jesus. Through its careful organization and rich traditions, the Liturgical Calendar remains a powerful tool for nurturing a deep and dynamic relationship with God.

I wish to conclude this section with the virtue of the month. Our virtue for this month is meekness. In the Gospel of Mathew 5:5 Jesus says, "Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth." Meekness is essentially an attitude or quality of heart whereby a person is willing to accept and submit without resistance to the will and desire of someone else. Meekness is thus an essential part of the kingdom. We are meek persons when we are modest, patient, understanding and humble. Meekness is a virtue that assists us in self-possession in the face of adversity, it enables a person to do good in response to evil.

Theme: Marriage is a Gift from God

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B, October 6, 2024

First Reading: Genesis 2:18-24, Second Reading: Hebrews 2:9-11, Gospel Mark: 10:2-16

Marriage forms the theme of today's liturgy as both the first reading from the book of Genesis and Mark's Gospel has something to say on the sacrament of marriage. Jesus in His response to the question "Is it lawful for a husband to divorce his wife" put to Him by the Pharisees, refers them to the original intention of marriage at creation: a man leaves his father and mother and joins his wife and they form a union making them one body and not two and what God has joined together no person has power to separate.

It could be that the Pharisees wanted to test Him to see if He would contradict the teaching of Mosaic Law which He did, or maybe to get His view so that they can put Him in enmity with the ruling class who have been involved in all manner of marriage issues. It may also be that they sincerely wanted to get His view on marriage. Whatever may be their reason the truth remains that the question of divorce was a burning issue during the time of Jesus. One of the main reasons divorce was a burning topic during the time of Jesus was the interpretations given by Rabbi on what constitute grounds for which a man can divorce the wife. Some schools of thought claim that a man could divorce the wife if the woman is objectionable to him while other claim it is only on the ground of infidelity. A woman may be divorced with or without her will but a man only with his will. A woman can only divorce a man if the man was a leper. The different opinions by scholars accounted for the much debate on marriage and divorce during the time of Jesus. However, Jesus comes with a new teaching that makes marriage a relationship of equality ordained by God from creation.

Jesus in a very gentle way directed the attention of His listeners away from the topic of divorce to the concept of marriage as something from the beginning of God's creation meant to be indissoluble. He exalts the status of women among the male dominated Pharisees of His time who do not consider women as equal to men but see women as an instrument to be used. Since God has created them male and female then, the question of a man divorcing the wife for any reason should not arise. Jesus was building a wall of defense around the institution of marriage as something sacred and not something one goes into it for selfish reasons. He wants His listeners to know that those who sought marriage only for pleasure must be reminded that marriage involves also some form of responsibilities. Again, those who regarded marriage simply as a means of satisfying the physical passion must know that there is also the level of spiritual unity involve in marriage.

As it was in the time of Jesus where divorce and marriage are burning issues, so also today it is in our society. Marriage is faced with similar situations not only with increasing rate of divorce but even more with a new definition of marriage. The book of Genesis says in the beginning God created them male and female and that is why a man leaves his father and mother and joins to his wife and they become one flesh. This concept of marriage as a union between a man and woman is under threat by some ideologies who define marriage on the contrary. Nevertheless, Jesus in today's gospel defends the sacredness of marriage as something that has been ordained by God at the moment of creation to be a union of male and female in an equal capacity. We are called to safeguard this institution through prayers, commitment to value of marriage and above all as a union of male and female. The Catholic Church teaches equally that marriage is a vocation which one enters with the hope to continue God's reign on earth and is indissoluble where children are welcome as a blessing from God.

Beloved in Christ,

Condolence Message

I received with profound shock, the sad news of the demise of our beloved brother and friend, Deacon Patrick Toilolo after battling with cancer. I know how lovely and dear Deacon Patrick was to his Family and the Parish Community in Our Lady of the Lake and how his departure must have devastated everyone.

This is why I write to mourn and condole with you Kalala and your lovely children, Fr. Anthony Okolo and the Catholic Faithful of Our Lady of the Lake Parish in this difficult moment of grief. With all the beautiful testimonies we have of him, especially that of a true holy man of God who through liturgical music and eloquent homilies instilled in us a deeper understanding of the faith and a stronger connection to God, I strongly believe with St. Paul that what awaits him now is the crown of righteousness, which the righteous judge will award him on the last day (cf. 1Tim. 4:7-8).

Kindly accept therefore the expression of my deepest heartfelt sympathy and the prayer for God to grant you the fortitude to bear the irreparable loss. May the soul of Deacon Patrick and all the souls of our departed brothers and sisters continue to rest in peace, Amen!

Yours Sincerely,

Most Rev. Julius Yakubu KUNDI
Catholic Bishop of Kafanchan

Virtue of the Month

Since 2017, Our Lady of the Lake Catholic School has been teaching the Virtues Program developed by the Dominican Sisters of Mary, Mother of the Eucharist in Ann Arbor. Our goal is to unite all aspects of our Parish by continuing to incorporate this program. Each month we will share in learning about a Virtue, applying it to our lives, and finding inspiration from the Saints and Scripture supporting the Virtue. The Virtue for October is Meekness.

The Unity Prayer

MY ADORABLE JESUS,
MAY OUR FEET JOURNEY TOGETHER.
MAY OUR HANDS GATHER IN UNITY.
MAY OUR HEARTS BEAT IN UNISON.
MAY OUR SOULS BE IN HARMONY.
MAY OUR THOUGHTS BE AS ONE.
MAY OUR EARS LISTEN TO THE SILENCE TOGETHER.
MAY OUR GLANCES
PROFOUNDLY
PENETRATE EACH OTHER.
MAY OUR LIPS PRAY TOGETHER TO GAIN MERCY FROM THE ETERNAL FATHER.
AMEN

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

(For those who are not able to receive Communion at this time)

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separate from you. Amen

Prayer to Saint Michael, the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la lucha; sé nuestro amparo contra la maldad y asechanzas del demonio. Pedimos suplicantes que Dios lo mantenga bajo su imperio; y tu, Príncipe de la milicia celestial, arroja al infierno, con el poder divino, a Satanás y a los otros espíritus malvados que andan por el mundo para la perdición de las almas. Amén.
