Reflection on the Solemnity of All Saints - Conclusion

Beloved Parishioners,

Last week I started reflecting on the meaning of All Saints and what that means to us as Catholics who profess our belief in the Communion of Saints. I shared in the first part that we have seen the example of Blessed Carlo Acutis who was born in 1991 and who died in 2006 that will soon be canonized at a later date that will be made known to us by the Holy See this year. His example shows us that even in the 21st century, the call to holiness is not outdated.

Second, this feast is an invitation for us not only to celebrate the lives of the saints as though it has no concern to us but as Hebrews 13:7-8 reminds us that as we reflect on the outcome of their lives, we must imitate their faith because Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. Again Hebrews 12:1-2 urges us thus: "Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a huge crowd of witnesses to the life of faith, let us strip off every weight that slows us down, especially the sin that so easily trips us up. And let us run with endurance the race God has set before us. We do this by keeping our eyes on Jesus, the champion who initiates and perfects our faith." This is a call to exemplary mirroring of the lives and examples of the saints we celebrate today by especially having a personal relationship with and a personal conviction about Jesus.

Thirdly, this feast invites us to live in hope knowing that our struggle here on earth is temporal and our destination and resting place is in heaven, where Christ has prepared for us. We are not earthbound rather we are "fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God" (Ephesians 2:9). "Our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body." (Philippians 3:20-21). As Church on mission or Church militant, we know that one day we shall unite with the Triumphant Church.

We ought to understand that saints are not just historical figures from the past, but they are our role models and our intercessors who are examples for us. The first reading from the Book of Revelation tells us that John saw a great multitude no one can number from all the nations, from every tribe and tongue and peoples who were standing before the throne of God who were saints. This underscores that everyone of us can be a saint because the saints we celebrate today are people who faced the same struggles we are facing now during their own time, but they cooperated with the grace of God at work in them. We must understand also that holiness is not perfection but progress in cooperating with God's grace. Every sinner has a future, and every saint had a past, so we must not be discouraged by making the effort to be holy. Our patron saints are cheering us on and interceding on our behalf and we must not let them down.

In the same vein, being a saint does not imply doing extraordinary things, rather it consists in doing ordinary things in an extraordinary manner. Just like St. Theresa of Lisieux highlights to us when she says, "I will spend my heaven doing good on earth", let us not ignore the works of mercy. In the Gospel, Christ highlights the various criteria for attaining blessedness and most of them center on doing works of mercy and standing upright. Let us be inspired by the Gospel of today.

Let us unite our prayers with those of the saints asking for their intercession and strength. May their lives inspire us to live boldly in faith, to seek holiness in the ordinary moments of our lives, and to share the light of Christ with the world that is in need. Amen.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Theme: The End of Time

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B, November 17, 2024

First Reading: Daniel 12:1-3, Second Reading: Hebrews 10:11-14,18, Gospel: Mark 13:24-32

As the liturgical year gradually winds down, the church directs our attention to the end time when everything comes to a halt including our own lives. The nature of it, the process it would take and what happens after all remain a mystery to us. However, death is one thing that would come to each of us whether we accept it or not, whether we believe it or not; there is no doubt that no one lives forever. Living liturgy succinctly says, "For death is coming for each of us, whether we will confront it in our own personal eschaton or in the cosmic apocalyptic drama as described in the Gospel of Mark." Even if "the end" does not occur in our time, even if another group of end time prophets falsely calculate Jesus' return and offer a precise date that do not come to pass, we will still come to our end. How are we preparing for it?

The readings remind us that it is not for us to be afraid, nervous or fearful of anything because the date and time is not known to anyone including the Son of Man. Rather the readings exhort us to realize we are pilgrims on a journey thus we are encouraged not to lose sight of that final destination which is to encounter the Lord face to face at the end. This would require an evaluation of our relationship with God, with our fellow human beings and our approach to things. A good reflection on these aspects would be of great assistance to prepare us for the end of time.

The first reading is taken from the Book of prophecy of Daniel of the end of time. In this prophecy he gives words of consolation and warning of the coming end time. According to the prophecy, "it shall be a time unsurpassed in distress since nation began until that time. At that time your people shall escape, everyone who is found written in the book."

Some of these apocalyptic writings have generated different interpretations which have led some false preachers to ascribe a date to the second coming of Jesus or of the end time.

I can still remember the many prophecies by the so-called false prophets of men and women of God before the year 2000. There were too many prophecies that some were contradicting themselves. Some even gave a day and time the rapture would happen. But we are still here, and the rapture is yet to happen. What this means is that we should never allow ourselves to be deceived by so many people who go about telling us that the rapture will happen today or tomorrow. Jesus himself stated clearly in today's gospel, "but of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the son, but only the Father." What is important is for us to live our lives in line with the spirit of Christ and never be afraid. God is all we need in our lives. What is sure is that in the end the Lord of all history will finally triumph over sin and the powers of evil in all their manifestation in the world. As followers of Christ therefore, we must heed the message of conversion and repentance in readiness for the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Gospel of today ended by saying "But of that day or hour, no one knows neither the angels in heaven nor the son but only the Father." All we are told is that the end of this world as we know it will certainly come. But no date or time is given. Let us just live our lives in God and allow the merciful Lord to take us to our home each time he calls us.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Flowers for Christmas

Blessings Parish Family. What demonstrates "Christmas" better than a beautifully decorated Church during the Holiday Season?

Christmas is right around the corner and every year during Christmas and Easter we are blessed with the beauty of our Church. All is made possible by you, our Church family, through your generous donations.

We need your help. This year, as in years past, we will be accepting donations for Christmas flowers and decorations. You could donate: $5, $50, $500, $5000, or whatever God places in your heart to offer. The goal as always is to allow the beauty of our worship space to draw souls into deeper prayer and encounter with our Lord in the Word and in Eucharist. Please give generously. We need ribbons, appropriate fabrics and lots of flowers. Your donation may be in the name of your family, in memory of a loved one, or in thanksgiving.

You may place your monetary gift in an envelope and label it "Flowers for Christmas" or in the envelopes provided. Drop them in the offertory basket or drop it off at the Parish Office prior to December 16, 2024.

God Bless You and thank you for helping make our God's house beautiful for Christmas.

Virtue of the Month

The Virtue for November is Moderation.

Ways to Cultivate Moderation:

- Limit time on Digital Devices
- Limit how much food you eat
- Create a balance with work and leisure activity

Saint John the XXIII

He was elected Pope in 1958 and kept a prayer journal his whole life. He balanced his many responsibilities with time for rest and prayer. He even had time to take a walk every day. He never let himself worry too much either. When he said his night prayers he would tell God, “Well, I did my best. It’s Your Church, so I’m going to bed now.”

Mary’s Kitchen

The Hispanic community will be selling food after the Spanish Mass in St. Joseph Hall. Shredded beef quesadillas with rice & beans will be served. All proceeds are to benefit the Church.

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary was a princess. She spent the royal money to buy bread for the poor. Some people were mad because she was giving away bread.

When they came to yell at her, she opened her coat to show them that she didn't have any bread—it had turned into a bouquet of flowers!
