Reflection for All Souls

Beloved Parishioners,

Last week I rounded off the reflection on All Saints and today I wish to reflect on All Souls which is celebrated the next day after All Saints. In my reflection on All Saints, it was pointed out that the Communion of the Saints occurs on the level of santi (holy people) on the three states of the Church namely, the Church Triumphant, the Church Militant, and the Church Penitent. It was noted equally according to the teaching of CCC 947 that "Since all the faithful form one body, the good of each is communicated to the others...", it follows that just as we solicit for the prayers and support of the saints in heaven, we owe it as a Christian duty and indeed it is one of the corporal works of mercy to pray for the dead, the members of the Church penitent.

Just like the feast of All Saints, All Souls signifies to us also that we belong to a larger communion which transcends time and space and connects us with the Church penitent. Hence All Souls is a time to remember and pray for all the faithful departed, especially those in purgatory.

We Catholics pray for the dead primarily to offer intercession for those who have passed away. We believe that the souls who have died in grace but still need to be cleansed of venial sins are debarred from the Beatific vision because nothing unclean shall see God (Revelation 21:27, Hebrews 12:14). Therefore, these souls go for mortification and purification for a little while in purgatory where it now falls on us, the faithful on earth, to help them by our prayers, alms, deeds, and especially by the sacrifice of the Holy Mass to achieve a quicker passage to heaven. Our prayers for them are an expression of love and solidarity. When we pray for them, we help them on their journey toward God and when they get to heaven, they in turn pray for us.

The doctrine of purgatory is not explicitly stated in the Bible, but we Catholics find support for it in several passages and traditions. Some of these scriptural references include:

2 Maccabees 12:38-46 — This passage describes Judas Maccabeus making atonement for the dead, suggesting a belief in purification after death.

1 Corinthians 3:11-15 — Paul speaks of a person's work being tested by fire, indicating that some may be saved, yet so as through fire, which can be interpreted as a process of purification.

Matthew 12:32 — Jesus mentions that certain sins will not be forgiven "either in this age or in the age to come," implying the possibility of forgiveness after death.

Over and above the spiritual significance of this feast, we ought to always remember and honor the memories of our departed loved ones. This remembrance keeps their memories alive in our hearts and helps bring us closer and comfort from the painful goodbye we bid them. Today I invite us to take a moment to think about those we have lost, recalling their names and the impact they had on our lives. I also encourage us to express gratitude to God for the gift of our departed loved ones and for the time spent with them. We shall also think about how we can honor their memories through our own lives. I encourage that we light a candle in their honor and offer Masses for them.

In this celebration we express our hope of eternal life. We remind ourselves of the promise of eternal life and the hope that we have in Christ's resurrection. In John 14:2-3, Jesus assures us of a place in His Father's house thus we ought to find comfort in knowing that death is not the end but a passage to eternal life with God.

I also wish to remind us that the Church grants a plenary indulgence to anyone who devoutly visits a cemetery between 1-8 November to pray for the departed souls or simply pray mentally for their peaceful repose in a chapel or Church. We pray for all the faithful departed asking God to grant them peace and eternal rest. May their souls rest in perfect peace. Amen.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Theme: Jesus Says “I am the Truth”

Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, November 24, 2024

First Reading: Daniel 7:13-14, Second Reading: Revelation 1:5-8, Gospel: John 18:33b-37

Today is the last Sunday in the Church’s calendar when we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King that Our Lord Jesus Christ is a universal King. Today’s feast reminds us that Jesus is the universal king, but His kingship is different from all other kings because He rules not by power and might like the world kings, emperors, and monarchs but by love which is manifested on the Cross. His power doesn’t make us slaves in the human way. It elevates us to Him and makes us share His own life. “Christ did not deny that he is a king rather he affirms he is a king but not that of the worldly kingship but heavenly kingdom. He came not to deliver people from oppression of the Romans or political institution, but from the oppression of sin and evil one, which is the greatest form of enslavement. His mission was to speak the truth through example and word.” This is a call for us who follow Him to strive for truth in our words, actions, and deeds. This truth must be spoken in charity with love.

Christ is the only man in human history who has said: “I am the Truth.” This profound statement of Jesus that ‘I am the truth’ is an indication that everything rests in Him, and everything is reconciled in Him thus Jesus offers Himself as the answer to all the questions of the human heart. He goes further to say that “Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.” It means that those who reject Christ reject Him not because of any other thing but because they could not withstand the truth of what He stands for or what He says. Christ is the King, a King that we must know not only with the mind, but also with the heart. Christ is the royal witness of truth because He governs upon mankind and the world in an authentic manner. “He doesn’t tower above. His scepter is not a wand of command but once more the Cross, that becomes pastoral with which He guides his sheep.”

In dying on the Cross, Jesus was not defeated by the world. He conquered it with His love and exhorts all those who would come after Him to be ready to give their lives for others. How prepared are we to sacrifice our lives for the good of other people as Jesus did for us?

Today’s Gospel reading opens with Pilate’s question to Jesus. “Are you the King of the Jews.” In response Jesus replies with a question that seeks to confront Pilate with his own personal commitment as opposed to what others tell him about Jesus. The issue is no longer Jesus’ guilt or innocence but whether Pilate will respond to the truth of Jesus’ kingship. In a way, Pilate knew what implication the affirmation of that question would generate especially within the Roman authorities. Jesus in turn throws the question back to him and wanted his own personal commitment. In the same way, we need a personal response to who is Jesus for us not relying on what others say but your own personal response which would be born from your own personal encounter with the Lord.

Besides, Jesus states that His Kingdom is not of this world in the sense that it neither takes its origin from here, nor is it an earthly kingdom that would be a rival to political imperialism. Jesus’ reign is beyond time and space and that’s why He says that His kingdom is not of this world. Jesus has no design on political control and yet, His power extends over every nation of the earth. His reign goes beyond political landscape because He rules at the deepest part of the human person which is the heart. The simple question is, does Jesus’ reign in your heart? Do you give Him the space to be the king and of your life?

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Did you know that a donation at Albertson's can help Our Lady of the Lake Soup Kitchen?

Yes! When Albertsons' ask if you would like to donate $1, $3, $5, $10, or other amount to a local charity during the months of November and December, that money stays right here in Lake Havasu City!

All donations (100%) are converted into Albertson's gift cards which are given to local food banks, including the Our Lady of the Lake Soup Kitchen. We share these gift cards with our guests and also use them to purchase necessary food to prepare our meals.

Since December, 2021 up until February, 2024, we have received $62,500.00 in gift cards from Albertson's!

So, just say YES, to even a $1.00 donation.
Thanks in advance from the Soup Kitchen!!!
