21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"People will come from the east and the west and from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God. For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." - Lk 13:29-30

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 24, 2025

No one is to be excluded from the kingdom for all peoples are called to proclaim the praises of the Lord and confess his holy name. No ethnic or religious group possesses exclusive rights to the kingdom. Suffering and pain are part of the human condition.

Pastor's Corner

“He Sent Them Two by Two” – Retracing Our Missionary Identity Conclusion

Beloved Parishioners,

I conclude my reflection started last week on our missionary identity. As I mentioned in last week's Pastor's Corner and during the Masses, beginning in September we will embark on an evangelization process in our parish.

First, begin with prayer. Ask the Lord each morning, “Where are You sending me today? Who needs Your peace?” Second, try as much as possible to be a quiet witness, a silent preacher. Strive to bring Christ to others through your small acts of charity, patience, and faithfulness. Third, share your story. Let others know how your faith sustains you. It only requires sharing the testimony of your faith and how faith in God keeps you going despite life's challenges. Remember that modern man listens to witnesses more than evangelizers. Fourth, invite others in. If someone is searching or hurting, invite them to Mass, to coffee, or simply to a listening ear. This simple act will go a long way in lifting their loads. We offer coffee and donuts every Sunday after Mass for people to share with one another. Fifth, support the Church's mission through giving your time, talents, and treasure. Help the Church “go forth.” Remember that some give to the missions by going while others go to the missions by giving.

Furthermore, Jesus told the disciples, “Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals...” He sends them with nothing but peace, with trust in God's provision, and with the power of His name. That's all we truly need. We live in a world that measures success by performance and visibility. But the Kingdom of God measures differently. The 72 were sent without gold or security, only with the power of peace and the authority of Christ. And so are we. The world does not need more noise or arguments. It needs authentic disciples—humble hearts walking side by side with the suffering and the searching. So let us go out—two by two, day by day—into the mission field of our own lives, knowing that Christ has gone before us and walks beside us.

More so, when the 72 return, they are rejoicing. “Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name!” (Luke 10:17). Their joy is understandable. They have seen miracles. They have experienced power in Jesus' name. But then Jesus gently redirects their focus: “Do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you but rejoice because your names are written in heaven.” (Luke 10:20). What humbling and beautiful teaching! Jesus does not dismiss the spiritual victories, but He reminds them—and us—that our true joy must be rooted not in what we do for Him, but in who we are in Him. It is not success in ministry, but intimacy with God that matters most. This is a call to holy humility.

May the Holy Spirit ignite in us a renewed zeal for mission. May Mary, Star of Evangelization, guide our every step. And may our parish become not just a sanctuary of prayer, but a beacon of peace and hope for all. When we place our confidence not in outcomes, but in our belonging to Christ, we become truly free. Free to love, to risk, to forgive. Free to rejoice—not in what we do, but in what God has done for us.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Theme: Jesus Invites Everyone to Enter the Kingdom of God

21st Sunday of the Year C, August 24, 2025

First Reading: Isaiah 66:18-21, Second Reading: Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13, Gospel: Luke 13:22-30

The three readings of today are connected in a very special way. In the first reading the Prophet Isaiah says, “thus says the Lord, I come to gather nations of every language, and they will come to see my glory.”, which means everyone is called to see the glory of God. We all are called to see God’s glory. God gives each of us an open invitation to witness his love and see his face and no one is excluded. The Letter to the Hebrews in the second reading is a call never to be disheartened by the discipline that comes from the Lord. In a word, some sufferings and challenges that confront us can be a way of training us to be fit for what God wants us to be. When faced with such moments let us not quit or be discouraged in life.

In the gospel Jesus invites everyone to enter the Kingdom of heaven. No one is excluded either by class, race, or color. The same theme of open invitation seen in the first reading is repeated in the Gospel. But in this case, there is one condition that is given, and it is to strive to enter through the narrow door.

The narrow door means to enter the kingdom of God is a lifelong struggle. “The door is not locked; it is open for everyone but requires each disciple to give up self-indulgent ways into a spiritual training program that will slim us down and enable us to pass through this door into the kingdom of God.” It is something we have to keep doing without giving up. It is consistency in doing good always. It is the ability to endure trials and difficulties that come our way as Christians. This ability to endure trials in the name of Christ is a sign that we are open to accept God’s will for our lives.

My dear brothers and sisters, let us never give up on ourselves because God has not finished his work on us. Let us never give up on what God can do in our lives. Let us never say that God has abandoned us. Let us continue to struggle to do our best because it is through such struggle that we can make heaven and that is the meaning of entering by the narrow door. I wish you all a blessed Sunday.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

FINAL GREECE PILGRIMAGE MEETING

It's time to start thinking about packing! There will be a final meeting for the pilgrimage to Greece on Wednesday, September 9th at 6:00pm in St. Joseph

PRAYER FOR TOLERANCE

Dear Jesus,
We praise You for Your goodness and mercy and thank You for the example of tolerance in Your life. We remember how You healed both Jews and Gentiles alike. Remind us to expect the same of ourselves and others as we try to see things from the perspective of others.

Have Some Extra time?

The Unity Prayer

My Adorable Jesus,
May our feet journey together.
May our hands gather in unity.
May our hearts beat in unison.
May our souls be in harmony.
May our thoughts be as one.
May our ears listen to the silence together.
May our glances profoundly penetrate each other.
May our lips pray together to gain mercy from the Eternal Father.
Amen

Our Lady's School Corner

Forming Courageous Catholics in the Virtues of Christ

Beloved Parishioners,

"The things that we love tell us what we are." –
St. Thomas Aquinas

We have had a wonderful start to our first quarter here at Our Lady of the Lake Catholic School! We are excited to share that our Religious Education program is now fully implemented with our new religious curriculum. This has been a blessing for our students and staff, and we extend our heartfelt gratitude to the Knights of Columbus for their generous donation last year, which helped make this possible. As John Cotton Dana once said, "Who dares to teach must never cease to learn," and our teachers have embraced this wholeheartedly. They have dedicated many hours this month to professional development, learning our new math and intervention program so they can better serve our students.

This year, our campus has taken a leap into the digital world with the use of student laptops. This new technology has opened doors for fostering independent learning and higher-order thinking. Our students have been busy with special research projects, writing essays, learning PowerPoint, and even working toward becoming Google Certified! We are also excited to share that we have a brand-new Crusader shirt, designed by our very own fifth grade student, Brooklyn Ontiveros. Shirts on sale now for $20 each (2XL+ sizes are $2 more) and can be ordered through the school front office.

Looking ahead, we are preparing for our First Annual Fall Festival on October 29, 2025. This exciting event will combine the church's Trunk-or-Treat and will feature bounce houses, games, and delicious food for the community. We are currently seeking business sponsors at $150 each to help offset the costs of the event. Candy donations are also welcome and appreciated. If you would like to sponsor or contribute, please contact the school office. We can't wait to celebrate together and make this a memorable event for our parish and school family!

God Bless,

Principal, Brittney Delgado

Congratulations, Brooklyn Ontiveros, for winning our t-shirt design contest

CELEBRATING THE JUBILEE 2025

TILMA

This Jubilee marks the 2025th year honoring the anniversary of Jesus' birth. Let us take some time to reflect and pray with Scripture. These passages offer guidance and encouragement as we witness hope to the world.

Isaiah 40:31: "Those who hope in the Lord will be strengthened and will be able to run and walk without growing weary."

Psalm 62: 5-6: "...for my hope is from God. God alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress. I shall not be shaken."

Jeremiah 29:11: "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope."

Hebrews 10:23: "Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for God is faithful."

Romans 15:13: "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in faith so that you overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit."

Matthew 19:26: "Jesus looked at them and said, 'With man, this is impossible, but with God, all things are possible.'"

May this Jubilee Year inspire us to deepen our trust in God's promises and rekindle the hope that sustains us because HOPE DOES NOT DISAPPOINT!

CELEBRANDO EL JUBILEO 2025

TILMA

Este Jubileo marca el año 2025 en honor al aniversario del nacimiento de Jesús. Tomemos un momento para reflexionar y orar con las Escrituras. Estos pasajes ofrecen orientación y aliento mientras damos testimonio de la esperanza al mundo.

Isaías 40:31: "Los que esperan en el Señor se renovarán en sus fuerzas; levantarán alas como las águilas; correrán, y no se cansarán; caminarán, y no se fatigarán."

Salmo 62: 5-6: "Sólo en Dios halla descanso mi alma; de él proviene mi salvación. Él es mi roca y mi salvación, mi baluarte; no seré sacudido."

Jeremías 29:11: "Porque yo sé los planes que tengo para ustedes, dice el Señor, planes de bien y no de mal, para darles un futuro y una esperanza."

Hebreos 10:23: "Mantengamos firme sin titubear la esperanza que profesamos, porque fiel es el que prometió."

Romanos 15:13: "Y el Dios de esperanza los llene de toda alegría y paz en la fe, para que abunden en esperanza por el poder del Espíritu Santo."

Mateo 19:26: "Jesús los miró y les dijo: 'Para los hombres esto es imposible; más para Dios, todo es posible.'"

¡Que este año Jubilar nos inspire a profundizar nuestra confianza en las promesas de Dios y reavivar la esperanza que nos sostiene, porque la ESPERANZA NO DECEPCIONA!

21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Find and circle these words from today's Gospel.

Prayer

Dear God, help me to do all that I can to grow closer to you.

Mission for the Week

Pray to God with your family, and ask God to change your hearts so that you love him more than anything else.

Sharing the Gospel

Heaven will be wonderful. People from all over the world will be there to enjoy God's friendship. No matter how small you feel now, you will always be important to God in heaven. Once you accept the gift of love from Jesus, you will want to change your life. You will want to spend time with God, and you will want to show love to other people. Then you can look forward to heaven.
