Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 7, 2025

Who can comprehend the Lord's ways or conceive what the Lord intends? True wisdom leads us to acknowledge our limitations (a matter of "calculation") and our idols of materialism as we seek to follow the Lord without reservation. True discipleship calls us to forgive those who have wronged us. May we gain the wisdom of heart to discern more fully our call to take up the cross of Jesus.

Living as Pilgrims: Walking Light in a World That Clings

Beloved Parishioners,

I feel I need to remind us again that we are still in the context of the Jubilee Year of Hope. A Jubilee Year is a sacred reminder that we are on a journey. We are not settlers; we are pilgrims. The Church calls this year the Jubilee Year of Hope because hope is the pilgrim's lamp — the light that keeps us walking when the road is long and the night feels deep. As pilgrims, we carry what truly matters and learn to travel light. This is the heart of discipleship.

Scripture is filled with pilgrim stories: Abraham leaving Ur, the Israelites stepping out of Egypt, Jesus moving from village to village "with no place to lay his head." None of them moved because it was convenient; they moved because God's promise was ahead of them. Pilgrimage is less about reaching the destination than about faithfulness in the next step — trusting God with the horizon while keeping our feet moving.

The world teaches the opposite: cling, collect, control. We cling to possessions — "I might need this someday." We cling to positions — "I have earned my place." We even cling to hurts — "If I let go, they might think they have won." Pilgrims know that carrying too much slows the journey and tires the soul. Jesus reassures us: "Do not be afraid, little flock; it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom" (Luke 12:32). The kingdom is the pilgrim's true inheritance — not the stockpile in our storerooms.

Yet no pilgrim walks empty-handed or alone. God provides food for the journey, strength for the climb, and healing when we falter — most powerfully through the sacraments. The Eucharist is our manna in the desert. At every Mass, the Lord places in our hands the Bread of Life and the Cup of Salvation, strengthening us for the road ahead. In the sacrament of Reconciliation, He lightens our load, removing the weight of sin and restoring joy. Baptism sets our feet on the pilgrim path;

Confirmation equips us with the Spirit's courage; Anointing of the Sick renews hope when the road grows steep; Matrimony and Holy Orders shape our service so that our journey blesses others.

We all know the experience: packing two suitcases for a week's trip but using only a fraction of what we brought, or moving house and finding boxes filled with things untouched for years. Spiritually, the same happens — our hearts become weighed down with what we think we must keep, rather than trusting God to give us what we truly need.

The Jubilee Year invites us to lighten our load. It is a year of release — forgiving debts, loosening grudges, opening our hands. There is peace in letting go of an old resentment, joy in giving away something we have kept for years and seeing it bless someone else. This is hope in action: believing that God's tomorrow is better than our tight grip on today.

Living as pilgrims in this Year of Hope can take many forms. We can declutter the soul by naming the fears, grudges, or regrets we no longer want to carry. We can practice generosity by giving away something we love but do not need. We can welcome holy detours — like the busy parent who pauses to listen to a child's story or the commuter who stops to help a stranger. We can observe Sabbath rest, trusting God enough to stop striving for one day each week. The pilgrim life is not about loss; it is about trust — the kind of trust that says, If I let go, God will hold me. In letting go, hope becomes lighter, freer, and more radiant. This Jubilee Year, may we walk light, with uncluttered hearts, lifted eyes, and steady steps toward the Kingdom.

Finally in the coming weeks we would all be encouraged to make visible in our parish how we have practiced this jubilee year of hope.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Theme: God's Wisdom and the Cross of Jesus

23rd Sunday of the Year C, September 7, 2025

First Reading: Wisdom 9:13-18b, Second Reading: Philemon 9-10, 12-17, Gospel: Luke 14:25-33

Today's first reading from the book of Wisdom explains that the things of the earth which are within our own grasp are difficult for us humans to comprehend how then can we grasp the heavenly realities. Solomon, in his numerous quests for answers on existential realities, posed one fundamental question, who could know divine counsel? At the end it was clear that it is only those to whom God has given wisdom through the Holy Spirit sent from on high will know God's counsel. "A major contribution of the Book of Wisdom is the theology of the Holy Spirit. The book characterizes divine wisdom as a person and virtually identifies her as the Spirit of God, who is the Holy Spirit." The Holy Spirit guides us to understand the things within us and beyond and when we open our hearts to the power of the Holy Spirit, we are sure to receive enlightenment which guides us to the truth of God. Let us then dispose ourselves to the power of the Holy Spirit that God may reveal himself more to us.

In the Gospel, Jesus teaches that his 'would be' followers must be those who prefer him to anything even father, mother, family, or children. The second requirement is that one should carry one's cross and come after him. The cross was an instrument of execution and torture and to carry one's cross means that you are on death row. That means, only those who prefer Jesus above all other things will be prepared to endure the suffering that discipleship demands. To carry one's cross means to accept whatever that comes to one during his daily life as a Christian. It means to offer every adversity, suffering and discomfort that come to us as Christians unto God. It is not that easy but with the grace of God we hope to succeed. This demands that God becomes the priority of our life. When God becomes our overall priority in life then we can sacrifice anything for his sake. Is God your priority.? What it is that stands between you and the love you have for God.?

- ♦ Prudence is one of the four cardinal Virtues.
- ♦ It helps people discern the right course of action in any given situation and make sound judgements aligned with God’s will.
- ♦ Making wise decisions and acting with discretion. It involves careful thought, planning and foresight.
- ♦ It is essential for all other virtues as it directs them toward their proper end.

Help Us Grow Our Catholic Preschool!

A Message from Your Parish School

Dear Parish Family, We are blessed to have a strong, all-day Catholic Preschool Program right here in our parish—designed to nurture the whole child: mind, body, and spirit. Our Preschool offers:

- ♦ A full-day program for busy families.
- ♦ A loving, faith-filled environment.
- ♦ Early learning rooted in Catholic values.
- ♦ A foundation that supports lifelong growth and faith.

We Need Your Help!

Our classroom still has space available, and we would be so grateful if you could help spread the word to your family, friends, neighbors, and co-workers. If you know someone looking for a safe, loving, and Christ-centered preschool, please share our information with them. Let's work together to build a strong Catholic foundation for the next generation. Tuition & Financial Support While our program is affordable, tuition is not covered by the state unless a family is already receiving aid. That's why we also ask you to consider supporting our Preschool prayerfully Tuition Assistance Fund. We have a special fund called the Santo Niño Program, which helps provide tuition support to families in need—but we can't do it without you. Your donations really make a difference.

How You Can Help:

1. Spread the word that we offer an all-day Catholic Preschool
2. Share our contact info with anyone who might be interested
3. Donate to the Santo Niño Program to support preschool scholarships

CELEBRATING
THE JUBILEE
HOPE FOR THE ELDERLY

TILMA

Pope Francis had said that, “The elderly, who frequently feel lonely and abandoned, also deserve signs of hope. Esteem for the treasure that they are, their life experiences, their accumulated wisdom, and the contribution that they can still make, is incumbent upon the Christian community and civil society which are called to cooperate in strengthening the covenant between generations.” (Spes, 14). The Diocese of Phoenix plans to establish a taskforce to develop a plan similar to the California Bishops’ “Whole Person Care Initiative” which provides communication between family members, hospitals, senior care facilities, Catholic chaplains, and hospice care along with parishes and pastors. Parishes are encouraged to hold gatherings of elderly people in the parish. Perhaps consider the Legion of Mary or equivalent to do outreach to the homebound and those in senior centers. Individuals should consider reaching out to a person you may know who may appreciate a friendly visit. All this is part of being a Pilgrim of Hope. HOPE DOES NOT DISAPPOINT!

CELEBRANDO EL JUBILEO
ESPERO PARA LOS ANCIANOS

TILMA

El Papa Francisco ha dicho que, “Los ancianos, que a menudo se sienten solos y abandonados, también merecen signos de esperanza. La estima por el tesoro que son, sus experiencias de vida, su sabiduría acumulada y la contribución que aún pueden hacer, es una obligación de la comunidad cristiana y de la sociedad civil que están llamadas a cooperar en el fortalecimiento del pacto entre generaciones.” (Spes, 14). La Diócesis de Phoenix planea establecer un grupo de trabajo para desarrollar un plan similar a la “Iniciativa de Cuidado de la Persona Completa” de los obispos de California, que proporciona comunicación entre miembros de la familia, hospitales, centros de cuidado de ancianos, capellanes católicos y cuidados paliativos, junto con parroquias y pastores. Se alienta a las parroquias a organizar reuniones de personas ancianas en la parroquia. Tal vez considerar la Legion de María o equivalente para hacer alcance a los confinados en casa y aquellos en centros para ancianos. Las personas deberían considerar comunicarse con alguien que puedan conocer que puede apreciar una visita amigable. Todo esto es parte de ser un Peregrino de la Esperanza. ¡LA ESPERANZA NO DESILUSIONA!

Prayer

Lord, help me share the things I prize most.

Mission for the Week

I will share part of the money I have with the poor.

Sharing the Gospel

Love God more than yourself. This means you will give up something you dearly love for him. When you have only one candy bar, God wants you to share it with your sister. When you have two pencils and two notebooks, God wants you to share with a student who has none. If your grandmother and grandfather play games and read to you, God wants you to share them with children who have no grandparents.
