THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "No one has gone up to heaven except the one who has come down from heaven, the Son of Man." For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. - Jn 3:13, 17

THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP IN 2025

Beloved Parishioners,

Today my reflection is centered on the cost of discipleship. Discipleships have never been cheap as you see even from last Sunday's reading. It has never been a walk in the park. Jesus Himself declared: "If anyone wants to be my disciple, let him deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow me" (Luke 9:23). Elsewhere He adds: "Anyone of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple" (Luke 14:33). These words have echoed across the centuries, and now, in 2025, they still strike us with both their challenge and their beauty. Today, the "cross" disciples must carry may not always look like first-century persecution, yet it remains real—often subtle, always demanding.

The Letter to the Hebrews reminds us: "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever" (Hebrews 13:8). This verse points us to Christ's unchanging presence. In a world that reinvents itself every few years—with new technologies, new ideologies, and new crises—it is easy to feel unmoored. Yet the writer to the Hebrews assures us: Jesus is not shifting sand; He is solid rock. The same Lord who healed the blind, touched lepers, forgave Peter, and welcomed Mary Magdalene is the same Christ who listens to our prayers today. In a year when the news cycle spins faster than ever, when AI reshapes our routines, and when social media insists that truth is relative, the constancy of Christ is our anchor. Discipleship, costly as it may be, begins with trusting that He does not change even when everything else does.

Think about it. In 2025, discipleship costs us when we refuse to cut corners in business while everyone else is doing it. It costs us when we choose honesty online, even though fake news spreads faster than truth. It costs us when we share bread with the hungry while inflation tempts us to hoard. It costs us when we log off social media to pray, while the world keeps scrolling. Following Christ today often means swimming against the currents of consumerism, relativism, and secularism. Being faithful requires standing firm on values that society sidelines. With the rise of AI, social media, and digital overload that can dilute spiritual depth, discipleship may involve reclaiming silence, authenticity, and truth in a noisy world. In societies struggling with inflation, inequality, and job insecurity, it still asks for generosity, trust in God's providence, and the refusal to compromise integrity for quick gain. And in the face of wars, climate crises, and migration challenges, discipleship calls Christians to costly solidarity with the poor, the displaced, and the marginalized. Beyond these external challenges, it also demands inner transformation—prayer, fasting, forgiveness, and humility.

The Church has consistently taught this truth. Vatican II in Lumen Gentium reminds us that the disciple is called not only to keep the commandments but to embrace the radical love of the Gospel (§42). Pope Paul VI in Evangelii Nuntiandi observed that people listen more to witnesses than to teachers (§41), and witness always costs something. Pope Francis often warns against the temptation of a "comfortable, safe faith" that avoids the risks of mission (Evangelii Gaudium, §88).

The cost of discipleship, then, is not a tax we pay; it is the very sign that we are walking in the footsteps of Christ. And yet, the paradox of the Gospel remains: whatever we give up, we receive back in abundance. Jesus promised that those who lose their life for His sake will find it (Matthew 16:25). And when we trust that He is the same yesterday, today, and forever, we find the courage to endure whatever 2025 may bring.

So yes, discipleship today costs us—our pride, our ego, our greed, sometimes even our popularity. But what it gives us is infinitely greater: Christ Himself. And in the end, isn't He the only treasure worth everything?

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Theme: Cross a Sign and Symbol of Victory

Feast Of The Holy Cross, September 14, 2025

First Reading: Numbers 21: 4b-9, Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11, Gospel: 3:13-17

Today the church celebrates the exaltation of the cross to demonstrate that it is in the Cross of Jesus that our salvation is achieved. To underscore its central place in our Catholic doctrine, today's feast must take the place of the twenty-fourth Sunday of ordinary time of the year. It is only a feast with such magnificence that can replace the Sunday Liturgy.

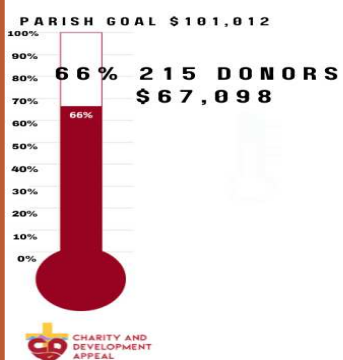

In our society today "the cross is much as a brand like anything else like clothes we wear." Thus, this is why even the makers of the cross are in a flourishing business as in any other type of business. It is common that with only a click you can order a cross from Amazon or any online shop. You can buy the cross in a thrift store or anywhere. However, the celebration of today's feast calls us to pause for a while and reflect on true significance and meaning of the cross.

The Cross was an instrument of execution and torture and was unique to the Roman empire at the time of Jesus. The cross was an instrument used by the Romans to make the awful spectacle of the agonizing death of anyone who opposed the Roman power. As such, "the Jews hated the cross because a curse was attached to anyone who died on the tree." (Deuteronomy 21:22-23). Besides, the cross was equally a sign and symbol of humiliation, shame and death. During the time of Jesus, the Romans made it evident that anyone seen carrying the cross is on a death row for execution. There is no appeal, and you will die a very humiliating death.

It is this instrument of execution, shame and torture that Jesus embraced and transformed it into a sign of victory. In the celebration of this exaltation of the Cross we are reminded that we should not be ashamed to embrace our own individual cross. The first reading from the book of Numbers and the gospel allude to this that when we take up our crosses we would be lifted by Jesus who has transformed this instrument of torture and shame to an instrument of victory and glory. As Christians we rejoice at the victory of the Cross, and we are confident that by embracing our individual crosses as Jesus did, we are sure to be given a crown of glory.

Help Us Grow Our Catholic Preschool!

A Message from Your Parish School

Dear Parish Family, We are blessed to have a strong, all-day Catholic Preschool Program right here in our parish—designed to nurture the whole child: mind, body, and spirit. Our Preschool offers:

- ♦ A full-day program for busy families.
- ♦ A loving, faith-filled environment.
- ♦ Early learning rooted in Catholic values.
- ♦ A foundation that supports lifelong growth and faith.

We Need Your Help!

Our classroom still has space available, and we would be so grateful if you could help spread the word to your family, friends, neighbors, and co-workers. If you know someone looking for a safe, loving, and Christ-centered preschool, please share our information with them. Let's work together to build a strong Catholic foundation for the next generation. While our program is affordable, tuition is not covered by the state unless a family is already receiving aid. That's why we also ask you to prayerfully consider supporting our Preschool Tuition Assistance Fund. We have a special fund called the Santo Niño Program, which helps provide tuition support to families in need—but we can't do it without you. Your donations really make a difference.

How You Can Help:

1. Spread the word that we offer an all-day Catholic Preschool
2. Share our contact info with anyone who might be interested
3. Donate to the Santo Niño Program to support preschool scholarships

Coffee & Donuts Volunteers Needed!

Our Coffee & Donuts fellowship is in urgent need of volunteers to keep this beloved ministry going. Without additional help, we may have no choice but to cancel. We would hate to see that happen, as this gathering is such a wonderful time for parishioners to come together and connect.

If you are able to help, please call the Parish Office at 928-855-2685. Even a small amount of time makes a big difference!

TILMA

To become a Pilgrim of Hope during the rest of the Jubilee year, we need to focus on our spiritual growth through prayer, pilgrimage, and acts of kindness. Embrace the journey with faith, love, and a desire for conversion, fostering strong communities and seeking reconciliation. Engage in regular prayer, especially with Scripture verses about hope. Reflect on the life of Jesus, particularly His journey of suffering, death, resurrection and how He walked with others. Seek the Lord in confession to be freed from sin and experience spiritual renewal in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Consider a pilgrimage to one of the Holy Sites designated by our Diocese. Be a source of joy and kindness to others, offering a helping hand, a smile, or a listening ear. Cultivate a spirit of gratitude by acknowledging the blessings in your life. Abrazar el viaje con fe, amor y un deseo de conversión, fomentando comunidades fuertes y buscando la reconciliación. Participar en la oración regular, especialmente con versículos de las Escrituras sobre la esperanza. Reflexionar sobre la vida de Jesús, particularmente su camino de sufrimiento, muerte, resurrección y cómo caminó con los demás. Buscar al Señor en la confesión para liberarse del pecado y experimentar una renovación espiritual en el Sacramento de la Reconciliación. Considerar una peregrinación a uno de los Lugares Santos designados por nuestra Diócesis. Mission for the Week

Every morning, I will remember to tell Jesus that I believe in him.

Sharing the Gospel

The Hebrew people were being bitten by serpents in the desert.
God told Moses to make a serpent out of bronze and put it on a pole. Everyone who looked at it would be healed. God put an end to the serpents and helped the Hebrew people. Many years later, Jesus was lifted up on the cross. We look at him and know that Jesus is our strength, our hope, and our healing. Look at the cross and say, "Jesus, I believe in you."
