25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon." - Lk 16:8b, 13

The Twenty-Fifth Sunday In Ordinary Time

September 21, 2025

Amos cries out against those who exploit the poor for the sake of extortion and greed. They seek to serve only themselves rather than the Lord. By giving ourselves to God rather than money, we can truly pray with blameless hands for all those in need, especially the poor whom the Lord will raise up.

Pastor's Corner

VESSELS OF CLAY, CARRIERS OF GRACE

Beloved Parishioners,

Each year, in the month of June our diocese marks a joyful rhythm as it is — the season of priestly and religious ordinations. In this month in the diocese new priests are consecrated, deacons ordained. In my own country the month of July and August across the length and breadth of the country is marked by many priestly ordinations and religious professions as well. The Diocese of Phoenix has over fifty seminarians in training for the priesthood of which we are lucky to have two of our own seminarians in formation training to be priests. The number of ordinations each year and the number of seminarians in formation in our diocese is enough to stir deep reflection. Why does the Lord continue to call? Why does He entrust His treasures to human hands? The answer lies in the mystery beautifully described by St. Paul: “We have this treasure in earthen vessels, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us” (2 Cor. 4:7). Priests and consecrated men and women are indeed vessels of clay — fragile, human, and weak — yet carriers of the priceless grace of God.

Priests stand at the altar to offer the Eucharist, reconcile sinners to God in the confessional, anoint the sick, and shepherd souls. Religious men and women — through vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience — live as a visible sign of the Kingdom that is to come. The Church reminds us in Perfectae Caritatis (n. 1) that the consecrated life belongs “undeniably to her life and holiness” and that religious are to “devote themselves wholly to God” for the building up of the Body of Christ. The priest is configured to Christ the Head; the religious, to Christ the obedient Servant. Together, they witness to a world so often tempted to forget the eternal.

If this is so, then their presence among us must never be taken for granted. A newly ordained priest or a newly professed sister or a deacon is not simply “another addition” to the clergy or convent; they are a fresh outpouring of God’s love upon His people. We must therefore sustain them — not only with material support when needed, but more importantly with daily prayer. The pastoral need for prayer for our priests and religious is urgent, for they carry the weight of many souls and battle spiritual challenges we often do not see. It is not enough to rejoice on ordination day and then forget. Our support must be steady, like Aaron and Hur holding up the hands of Moses so that God’s people might prevail (Ex. 17:12).

Cherishing our consecrated members requires concrete action. First, pray for them daily — by name when possible — that they may remain faithful and joyful in their vocation. Second, encourage them with kind words, especially in moments when they seem weary. Some priests face some challenges, and some get burnt out in their priestly ministry. Third, protect them from gossip, harsh criticism, and unrealistic demands, remembering they too are “clay vessels.” Fourth, collaborate with them in parish or apostolic activities so that their mission bears fruit. Fifth, mark their ordination or profession anniversaries as a community to renew our gratitude to God.

The Church is blessed with many new “vessels of clay” sent into the harvest. Let us receive them with joy, walk with them in their journey, and hold them up before the Lord in prayer. For in their fragile humanity, they carry the treasures of grace — and through them, Christ Himself continues to feed, heal, and save His people. May we take a little more time and remember them in our prayers each day.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Theme: Prayers Should be Offered for Everyone

25th Sunday of the Year C, September 21, 2025

First Reading: Amos 8:4-7, Second Reading: 1 Timothy 2:1-8, Gospel: Luke 16:1-13

The first reading from Prophet Amos condemns the attitude of the rich who exploit the poor for their own selfish advantage. Prophet Amos warns against the exploitation of anybody, most especially those who take advantage of people's vulnerability. The second reading encourages us to pray for everyone especially those in authority because God wants everyone to be saved. Jesus in the gospel gives a parable that teaches us to put the same effort we use in things of this world for things of heaven. Our Spiritual life is something we all should care about.

Paul asking prayers for everyone especially those in authority is like what Jesus asks us in the Gospel of Luke to pray for our enemies and those who treat us badly. This is because when Paul wrote this epistle in the first century the Romans were oppressing the Jews and treating them badly, yet he told them to pray for them. Paul knew that Jews at that time were not happy with the Roman authorities, yet he asked them to pray for them because Christ wants everyone to be saved. By sincerely praying for those who treat us badly, those who hate us, we carry out Jesus' words to love our enemies. Secondly, those in authority need our prayers to be guided wisely by their decision. Let us pray for our government and those in authority today both, in the church and state, even when their policies, actions and decisions do not go down well with us.

The central message Jesus gives us from the gospel is that as the master of the steward does not give a negative judgement of his dishonest servant so too Jesus is not interested in giving us a negative judgment but that we should take a decision to do better in our life. Jesus wants us to take a good decision about the things of heaven as we always do with the things of this world. Let us be wisely guided to care about our relationship with God in everything we do. May we ask for the Holy Spirit to seek God more with our mind and heart. Let us seek spiritual guidance and care for our souls and our relationship with God.

Happy Sunday to you all.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Did you hear what Fr. Tony said???? We are ALL called to be involved in the work of evangelization. Sometimes that means ourselves!!! When was the last time you really “grew up” in the Faith or learned something truly meaningful about being Catholic? Yes, we would like more people to become Catholic by joining the OCIA but we also need adult Catholics to grasp more about their faith to be more effective in the Kingdom of God. Therefore, the OCIA classes are open to any parishioner. We meet on Tuesdays from 6:00 pm to 7:30 pm. Come on down for some enlightenment and challenge! And oh yes, anyone wanting to become Catholic, you please come, too. See you there!!!

Some stories relate that Padre Pio was seen airborne by airplane pilots flying during WWII. Padre Pio is better known, however, for his wisdom as a confessor.

CELEBRATING THE JUBILEE
EVANGELIZATION

TILMA

Evangelization is a core aspect of the 2025 Jubilee Year, themed “Pilgrims of Hope”. Catholics are invited to deepen their faith and share God’s mercy and presence with others – especially those on the margins of society. Pope Francis called for this special year to renew hope in a world facing conflict, the effects of the pandemic, and all the crises we see in our world. He encouraged personal encounters with Jesus and a greater commitment to mission and solidarity. We can evangelize by fostering a thirst for Jesus among those who don’t know Him, including prisoners, the sick, and the poor. Remember, we still have the Soup Kitchen ministry at the Colombian Hall and you can volunteer to help there. We are called to be “co-responsible: for ensuring that signs of hope become a tangible witness to God’s presence in the world, which is a form of evangelization. Your welcoming of new people at Masses and your openness to them is part of evangelization. In your prayers, think about a person you know who you would like to bring back into the Church. Pray for them. Hope that the Holy Spirit will provide a way for you to reach out to them. Remember that the whole Jubilee is about hope. HOPE DOES NOT DISAPPOINT!

CELEBRANDO EL JUBILEO
EVANGELIZACIÓN

TILMA

La evangelización es un aspecto fundamental del Año Jubilar 2025, con el tema “Peregrinos de Esperanza”. Se invita a los católicos a profundizar su fe y compartir la misericordia y la presencia de Dios con los demás, especialmente con aquellos que están en los márgenes de la sociedad. El Papa Francisco convocó este año especial para renovar la esperanza en un mundo que enfrenta conflictos, los efectos de la pandemia y todas las crisis que vemos en nuestro mundo. Él animó a tener encuentros personales con Jesús y a un mayor compromiso con la misión y la solidaridad. Podemos evangelizar fomentando la sed de Jesús entre aquellos que no lo conocen, incluidos prisioneros, enfermos y pobres. Recuerda que todavía tenemos el ministerio de la Cocina Comunitaria en el Salón Colombiano y puedes ofrecerte como voluntario para ayudar allí. Estamos llamados a ser “co-responsables” de garantizar que los signos de esperanza se conviertan en un testimonio tangible de la presencia de Dios en el mundo, lo cual es una forma de evangelización. Tu acogida a nuevas personas en las Misas y tu apertura hacia ellos es parte de la evangelización. En tus oraciones, piensa en una persona que conoces a quien te gustaría reintegrar en la Iglesia. Ora por ella. Espera que el Espíritu Santo te brinde una manera de acercarte a ella. Recuerda que todo el Jubileo trata sobre la esperanza. ¡LA ESPERANZA NO DESILUSIONA!
