The Thirtieth Sunday In Ordinary Time

October 26, 2025

Humility is the recognition that no matter what our accomplishments, we still stand in need of the Lord. God hears the cry of the poor and the oppressed, especially those who acknowledge their dependency upon him. Having heard Paul's cries for help, the Lord crowned him with eternal salvation.

OCTOBER: THE ROSARY AND DEVOTION TO SAINT JOSEPH. Conclusion

Beloved Parishioners,

I wish to conclude the reflection I started last week on the Rosary and October devotion. October also shines as the month of the Holy Rosary—a devotion Pope Leo XIV calls “the heartbeat of a Church that prays.” The Rosary remains one of the simplest yet deepest ways to draw near to Christ through the eyes of His Mother. Each mystery invites us to see our lives reflected in the story of salvation—to find light in sorrow, strength in weakness, and hope in waiting.

October became particularly associated with the Rosary after the Battle of Lepanto in 1571, where Christians, invoking the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary through the Rosary, achieved a significant naval victory against the Ottoman Empire. The Battle of Lepanto, fought on October 7, 1571, was a crucial naval engagement between the Holy League, a coalition of Christian states, and the Ottoman Empire. During the 16th century, the Ottoman Empire was expanding aggressively into Europe, threatening Christian territories and maritime trade routes. The rise of Ottoman power prompted fears among European nations, leading to the formation of the Holy League, which included Spain, the Papal States, and the Venetian Republic. Pope Pius V played a pivotal role in organizing the Holy League, rallying support from various European powers.

The naval battle between the Holy League and the Ottoman troops took place near Lepanto, a port in western Greece. The tide turned in favor of the Holy League, resulting in a decisive victory. In recognition of the battle's significance, Pope Pius V established the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, celebrated on October 7, to commemorate the victory and the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Rosary was seen as a powerful prayer that had contributed to the success of the Holy League. More so, this feast equally promotes the Rosary as a means of spiritual warfare and intercession.

Yet beyond its history, the Rosary is more than repetition—it is a rhythm of love, a reassurance of hope, and a weapon of peace. Every bead we touch becomes a whisper of trust: that even in chaos, God's promises endure. In this Jubilee Year of Hope, every Hail Mary becomes a gentle declaration that God is not distant, and that love still wins.

So, as this October unfolds, I encourage every family to pray the Rosary together, entrusting your home to the protection of Saint Joseph. Let each bead pass through your fingers as a seed of peace—for our nation, our Church, and our world. In an age marked by restlessness and distraction, the Rosary recenters us in Christ, reminding us that love is stronger than fear and prayer is stronger than despair.

As Pope Leo XIII once prayed to Saint Joseph, we join our voices to reaffirm today: “Guard, O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, the chosen children of Jesus Christ; ward off from us every contagion of error and every influence that corrupts the heart. O mighty protector, assist us from heaven in our struggle with the powers of darkness.”

May Our Lady of the Rosary intercede for us. May Saint Joseph strengthen our hope, and may this October renew in us the faith that—even in uncertain times—God's plan is still unfolding quietly, faithfully, and always with love.

Theme: Right Attitude to Prayer

30th Sunday of the Year C, October 26, 2025

First Reading: Sirach 35: 12-14, 16-18 Second Reading: 2Tim 4:6-8, 16-18 Gospel Luke 18:9-14

Last Sunday's liturgy presented us with the importance of prayer and the need to persevere in prayer. In today's gospel reading we are presented with the right attitude to prayer and the nature our prayer should take. This is seen in the parable Jesus gave of two men, a Pharisee and a tax collector who went up to the temple to pray. The Pharisee prayed from his heart proudly listing out all his good deeds. His prayer was not directed to God but to himself. The Pharisee did not really go to pray he went to inform God about how good and righteous he was. He was rather singing his own praises. (2 Cor 10:18) He was almost demanding God to admire and approve of him. At the end his prayer was rejected.

On the other hand, the Publican considers himself not even worthy to appear before God. He prays with humility and with a contrite heart. He sought God with great humility of heart and not pride. Thus, he stays at the back and would not even lift his eyes but says "God be merciful to me a sinner." We were told that the publican goes home accepted by God because he humbles himself and recognizes his unworthiness before God. He won God's approval because he recognizes that humility is the key step to a good relationship with God and this is what the Pharisee fails to see. God is the source of our justification and every good thing in our lives is God's doing. (Phil 2:13)

Jesus warns each of us against self-righteousness, considering ourselves to be better than others.

Jesus talks to us about self-conceit, and every form of pride. This is because the proud place themselves at a distance from others and look at other people with disdain and disrespect. (Prov 11:12) A proud person sees himself perfect and as such cannot bend down to pray. The sin of the Pharisee was that he was full of pride at his own self-righteousness rather than being grateful to God. A biblical scholar once said that the gate of Heaven is so low that none can enter it, except on bended knees. Therefore, the sin of pride is a deadly sin because it blindfolds the person. (Prov 26:12) This is why many good Catholics who have given up going to Mass have lost this awareness that our holiness and justification begin with a humble recognition of our need for God's mercy. Because in every Mass, we begin by acknowledging we are not perfect, and we approach him in a heart full of mercy. The second point is that no one who despises others can expect his prayer to reach God because despising one's neighbor closes the door to God's heart. In prayer we do not lift ourselves above others. We are all in one boat of sinning, suffering, and sorrowing humanity, all kneeling before the throne of God's mercy. Therefore, for our prayer to reach God we must never look down on anyone expecting God to accept our own prayers. (Gal 6:3, Romans 12:16, Phil 2:3)

REMEMBERING OUR LOVED ONES

By tradition, the Catholic Church dedicates the month of November to the Holy Souls in the Purgatory, those faithful Christians who have died and gone before us but who still must atone for their sins. The time they spend in Purgatory cleanses them so that they may enter heaven free from all effects of sin. Praying for the dead, especially for those we have known, is part of Christian charity. Our prayers and sacrifices can be offered up to relieve their suffering. The parish will offer over 40

Masses this November for all the faithfully departed whose names are written in the Book of Memory located in the Narthex of the church. This is a wonderful opportunity for you to pray for and remember your parents, children, grandparents, family and friends. Envelopes are available for your sacrificial offering to pray for the deceased.

RECORDADO A NUESTROS SERES
QUERIDOS

Por tradición, la Iglesia Católica dedica el mes de noviembre a las Benditas Almas del Purgatorio, aquellos cristianos fieles que han Muerto y se han ido antes que nosotros, pero que aun deben expiar sus pecados.

El tiempo que pasan en el Purgatorio los purifica para que puedan entrar al Cielo libres de todos los efectos del pecado. Orar por los Muertos, especialmente por aquellos que hemos conocido, es parte de la caridad cristiana. Nuestras oraciones y sacrificios pueden ofrecerse para aliviar su sufrimiento. La parroquia ofrecerá mas de 40 misas en noviembre por todos los fieles difuntos cuyos nombres están escritos en el Libro de la Memoria ubicado en la entrada de la Iglesia.

Esta es una maravillosa oportunidad para orar y recordar a sus padres, hijos, abuelos, familiares y amigos. Hay sobres disponibles para su ofrenda para orar por los difuntos.

Charity and Development Appeal – Answer the Call

This year's CDA has been off to a slow start, but together we can make a difference. Every gift—large or small—helps bring hope, support, and love to those in need throughout our diocese. We ask each of you to prayerfully consider making your gift today. Let's come together as a parish family and answer the call to action.

Give today at www.give.dphx.org

St Vincent de Paul invites you to help your neighbors in need. We would like to restart a SVDP Conference in Lake Havasu. We will be doing a two day training on Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 from 9-3 each day. Even if you can only attend one day please come. Jesus Himself loved the poor and was born poor. Please contact Mary Ann Hunter at maryannhunter44@gmail.com or 928-699-9232 if you are interested or for more information. Thank you for saying, "YES" to Jesus!

Pregnancy Care Center is a non-profit Christian based ministry that offers emotional, physical and spiritual support to young mothers and families in need.

This year the pregnancy care center is in need of: Baby Food & Formula, baby wipes, diapers (Newborn to 5), clothing (Size: Newborn to 2T), baby blankets, strollers, playpens, high chairs, bottles, and baby toiletries.

Items can be new or gently used. Please place your items in the playpens in the Narthex.

If you have any questions please contact Elliott in the Parish Office at 928-855-2685.

We will study Baptism this Tuesday at 6:00!!!!

But wait!!! Isn't that way too basic to spend time on or take an interest in?

Well..... It does have something to do with justification (how you become righteous before God) How is it? Does it take faith to be saved? Works? Grace? All 3? What is it?

Furthermore, what other supernatural riches are conferred on you at baptism? Are you even using those riches?

Better come find out.

Our Lady of Guadalupe Rosaries at Home

The 46 rosaries for Our lady of Guadalupe start Tuesday, October 28th and go through Wednesday, December 10th leading to the celebration on Thursday, December 12th. If you would like a list of addresses for the rosaries you may pick one up in the Narthex.

CELEBRATING THE
LIFE: OUR SIGN OF

This October, Respect Life Month's theme is "Life, Our Sign of Hope" which connects directly with the Jubilee Year's theme. The month aims to highlight why every human life is valuable and to reflect on how to build a culture that protects and upholds the dignity of life. The 2025 Respect Life Poster shows an infant at baptism, symbolizing how the gift of life itself is a source of hope, much like the spirit of the Jubilee. This month serves as a call for baptized individuals to witness the "Gospel of Life" by promoting and defending the precious gift of human life. The two initiatives work in tandem as the Jubilee Year's overarching message of "Pilgrims of Hope" provides a framework for the specific focus on "Life: Our Sign of Hope" during Respect Life Month. The Jubilee challenges all people to be beacons of hope, and a core part of that is embracing and defending the inherent dignity and goodness of every human person which is the essence of the pro-life message. Other actions that promote a culture of life during the Jubilee Year extend beyond direct pro-life advocacy to encompass a broader commitment to justice, mercy, and compassion for the vulnerable. These efforts reflect the biblical and historical roots of the Jubilee, which call for restoration of right relationships with God and with one another knowing that HOPE DOES NOT DISAPPOINT!

CELEBRANDO
EL JUBILEO
VIDA: NUESTRO SIGNO
DE ESPERANZA

TILMA

Este octubre, el tema del Mes de la Vida es "Vida, Nuestro Signo de Esperanza", que se conecta directamente con el tema del Año del Jubileo. El mes tiene como objetivo resaltar por qué cada vida humana es valiosa y reflexionar sobre cómo construir una cultura que proteja y defienda la dignidad de la vida. El cartel del Mes de la Vida 2025 muestra a un bebé en el bautismo, simbolizando cómo el don mismo de la vida es una fuente de esperanza, al igual que el espíritu del Jubileo. Este mes sirve como un llamado para que los bautizados sean testigos del "Evangelio de la Vida" promoviendo y defendiendo el precioso don de la vida humana. Las dos iniciativas trabajan en conjunto, ya que el mensaje general del Año del Jubileo de "Peregrinos de Esperanza" proporciona un marco para el enfoque específico en "Vida: Nuestro Signo de Esperanza" durante el Mes de la Vida. El Jubileo desafía a todas las personas a ser faros de esperanza, y una parte central de ello es abrazar y defender la dignidad y bondad inherentes de cada persona humana, que es la esencia del mensaje provida. Otras acciones que promueven una cultura de vida durante el Año Jubilar van más allá de la defensa directa de la vida para abarcar un compromiso más amplio con la justicia, la misericordia y la compasión hacia los vulnerables. Estos esfuerzos reflejan las raíces bíblicas e históricas del Jubileo, que llaman a la restauración de relaciones correctas con Dios y entre nosotros, sabiendo que ¡LA ESPERANZA NO DECEPCIONA!

Prayer

Lord, please forgive me.

Mission for the Week

I will ask God for forgiveness morning, noon, and night.

Draw the star square by square.

Sharing the Gospel

During Mass you will hear the priest and people say, "Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy." It means, "Lord, forgive me." You are human. You will make mistakes. God is proud when you are honest and admit that you did something wrong. He smiles when you forgive yourself and others. He frowns when you talk and act like you are better than others. God wants you to do right.
