Reflection for the Feast of All Saints Part 1

Beloved Parishioners,

Last week we celebrated the Solemnity of All Saints, and it is my wish to share a reflection on this great feast of the church. In the 9th article of the Apostle's Creed, we profess "I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saint." It is exactly that Communion of Saints, "Communio Sanctorum" in Latin, that we highlighted last week as we celebrated the Solemnity of All Saints otherwise known as All Hallows. This feast reminds us that we are a part of a larger communion which connects us to the saints in heaven.

The Communion of Saints in the Mystical body of Christ, the Church, exists in the three states of the Church namely: the Church Militant (ecclesia militans), the Church Penitent (ecclesia poenitens), and the Church Triumphant (ecclesia triumphans). Today, the focus of our celebration is on the Church Triumphant. We celebrate the communion we share with the saints in heaven because for us Catholics, the saints are not dead, but are fully alive in Jesus Christ, who is life itself (John 11:25; 14:6) and the bread of life who bestows life on all who eat his flesh and drink his blood (John 6:35, 48, 51, 53-56). The book of Revelation tells us about the saints worshipping God, singing hymns, playing instruments, making requests to Christ to avenge their martyrdom, and offering prayers for the saints on earth (Rev. 4:10, 5:8, 6:9-11). Because they are alive, we believe that we can go to them to intercede for us with God since CCC 947 rightly teaches that "Since all the faithful form one body, the good of each is communicated to the others..."

We know that heaven is populated by saints who are known to God alone hence on this special feast of All Saints, we celebrate all the known and canonized saints, as well as the unknown saints who could be members of our family, our friends and acquaintances who now share the beatific vision.

The Solemnity has its roots in the earliest days of the Church. Even in the New Testament times, martyrs were honored by the community of believers, beginning with the deacon Saint Stephen, the first martyr. As the first century of the Church unfolded, others began to suffer persecution and death at the hands of Roman emperors, and the Church honored their deaths. In the fourth century, after Christianity was legalized in 313 by Emperor Constantine I, public devotion to the martyrs began to flourish. Their graves became churches and places of pilgrimage and prayer. On May 13, 609, Pope Boniface IV transformed the Pantheon in Rome, a former pagan temple, into a church dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary and all martyrs. The annual celebration of its dedication also honored the Blessed Virgin Mary and all martyrs. On November 1, 731, Pope Gregory III dedicated an oratory within Saint Peter's Basilica to "all saints" that included the Apostles, martyrs, confessors, and all holy men and women throughout the world. This broadened the commemoration of the saints beyond the martyrs to all who lived saintly lives. In 844, Pope Gregory IV extended the November 1st celebration to the entire Church. In 1484, Pope Sixtus IV made November 1st a holy day of obligation for the entire Church and added a vigil day and octave to follow, making the celebration nine days in all. The vigil celebration for All Hallows' Day was called All Hallows' Eve, or Halloween. Unfortunately, in many places, Halloween has lost its Christian and saintly focus and has become a secular, and even pagan, celebration.

By instituting this feast, the Church wants us to understand that our fundamental call as Christians is a call to holiness and this call is not restricted to the clergy or consecrated persons, rather it is universal. Lumen Gentium number 40 highlights that "the followers of Christ must hold on to and perfect in their lives that sanctification which they have received from God" and in Matthew 5:48 Jesus admonishes us that we must be holy as our Heavenly Father is holy. In fact, we picked up our appointment letter to a life of holiness on the day we became baptized. It's a lifelong endeavor but the grace of God is there to assist us. Our generation is not exempted in this call to holiness. We have seen the example of Saint Carlo Acutis who was born in 1991, died in 2006 and was canonized on the 7th of September this year. His example shows us that even in the 21st century, the call to holiness is not outdated. To be concluded next week.

Theme: Water, Life, and the Living Church

Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica, Year C, November 9, 2025

First Reading: Ezekial 47:1-2,8-9,12, Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17, Gospel John 2:13-22

Today's liturgy calls us to reflect on the importance of the church as a sacred place of prayer and encounter with God. The temple is a place to worship God. It is a place of special encounter where prayers, supplication and thanksgiving are offered to God. The sacredness of the church is unique because of the presence of God dwelling in it.

The Basilica of St. John Lateran is the seat of the Bishop of Rome who is the Pope. The Lateran has served as the main church of Rome since 324AD. This Basilica is unique in the sense that it stands as the symbol of unity for all the Catholics in the world. The reason for the celebration is to reiterate the importance of unity which the church symbolizes.

The readings of today are not just about the physical building but a symbol of God's presence dwelling among his people in a very profound manner. The first reading captures Ezekiel's vision of water which flows into the eastern district down upon the Arabah, and empties into the sea, the salt waters, which make it fresh. "Wherever the river flows, every sort of living creature that can multiply shall live, and there shall be abundant fish, for wherever this water comes the sea shall be made fresh." Water is a symbol of life, and this vision gives us a metaphor of the waters of baptism which brings us into an abundant life in Christ when an individual is baptized. As water gives life to all living creatures so also Christ gives life to all who are baptized onto him. Paul, in the second reading, reminds us that we are temples of the Holy Spirit where God dwells. As temples our bodies are sacred and should be treated with respect and honor.

Jesus in the gospel expels all those who have turned the house of God into a marketplace. The annoyance of Jesus against the money changers in the temple is directed at the exploitation of the poor pilgrims who had come to worship God. It is a call that the church is a place for worship of God and not exploitation. Any religion that exploits the people is devoid of a true worship of God.

"The Church is neither simply a building nor a community of worshippers nor a collection of beliefs and truths but a mystery in the deepest sense- a mystery that we are as children of God invited to receive and become the gift of Eucharist."

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

School Security update

We are pleased to share that the National Rifle Association (NRA) has selected us for a $15,000 grant to enhance our campus fencing, improving security for our staff and students.

Exciting News!

We are pleased to announce that Our Lady of the Lake has been selected by the NRA School Shield program—an initiative that provides schools with resources, guidance, and funding to enhance safety and security—for $15,000 in funding to support school security upgrades. Safety is our number one priority, and this funding is an important step toward making our campus more safe and secure, protecting both our staff and students.

Stay tuned for updates as we begin implementing these planned upgrades!

The Santo Nino Celebration will be held on January 18, 2026 at 10:30 AM Mass followed by the Sinulog Celebration at the St. Joseph's Hall.

CELEBRATING THE JUBILEE
ST. PAUL, AN EXAMPLE OF HOPE

TILMA

St. Paul, is an example of hope for all of us. His confidence was rooted in the resurrection of Jesus and he demonstrated how hope enables one to endure suffering with patience and joy. Even when facing imprisonment and the threat of death, he found peace in the belief that his hope in Christ would lead to eternal life. He endured many hardships but held on to his sure and steadfast anchor. His life shows that hope is not just a feeling but a conviction that fuels endurance and transforms suffering to a source of strength. Paul described hope as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, providing a firm and certain foundation even in the midst of life's trials. His hope gave him peace, even when facing death. He wrote, "For to me, to live in Christ, and to die is gain," showing his desire to be with God. Paul prayed that the "God of hope" would fill believers with all joy and peace, enabling them to "overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." This shows that hope is both a human virtue and a divine gift. This Jubilee Year has been all about "Pilgrims of Hope." We have learned that HOPE DOES NOT DISAPPOINT!

CELEBRANDO EL JUBILEO SAN PABLO, UN
EJEMPLO DE ESPERANZA

TILMA

San Pablo es un ejemplo de esperanza para todos nosotros. Su confianza estaba arraigada en la resurrección de Jesús y él demostró cómo la esperanza permite soportar el sufrimiento con paciencia y alegría. Incluso al enfrentar el encarcelamiento y la amenaza de la muerte, encontró paz en la creencia de que su esperanza en Cristo lo llevaría a la vida eterna. Soportó muchas dificultades, pero se aferró a su ancla segura y firme. Su vida muestra que la esperanza no es solo un sentimiento, sino una convicción que alimenta la perseverancia y transforma el sufrimiento en fuente de fortaleza. Pablo describió la esperanza como un ancla segura y firme del alma, proporcionando un fundamento sólido y cierto incluso en medio de las pruebas de la vida. Su esperanza le daba paz, incluso al enfrentar la muerte. Escribió: "Porque para mí, vivir es Cristo y morir es ganancia", mostrando su deseo de estar con Dios. Pablo oró para que el "Dios de la esperanza" llenara a los creyentes de toda alegría y paz, permitiéndoles "rebosar de esperanza por el poder de 'el Espíritu Santo.'" Esto muestra que la esperanza es tanto una virtud humana como un don divino. Este Año Jubilar ha sido todo sobre "Peregrinos de la Esperanza." ¡Hemos aprendido que LA ESPERANZA NO DECEPCIONA!

Maintenance Worker-Fulltime 40 hours/week; benefits

The position will consist of a variety of maintenance tasks to ensure the buildings, grounds, and equipment are safe, operational, and secure. Duties will include keeping all buildings clean, stocked and ready to use. Must be willing to work evening and weekend hours as necessary. The successful candidate must be organized and a self-starter. Applicants must be able to work independently, checking everything off their to-do list, meeting deadlines and schedules.

Attention to detail and the ability to look for a solution when a problem is presented is required. A working knowledge of Microsoft Word and Excel is necessary. Prayer

Lord, I will fill your house with prayer, songs, and worship.

Mission for the Week

I will respect God's house with my voice, my clothing, and my actions.

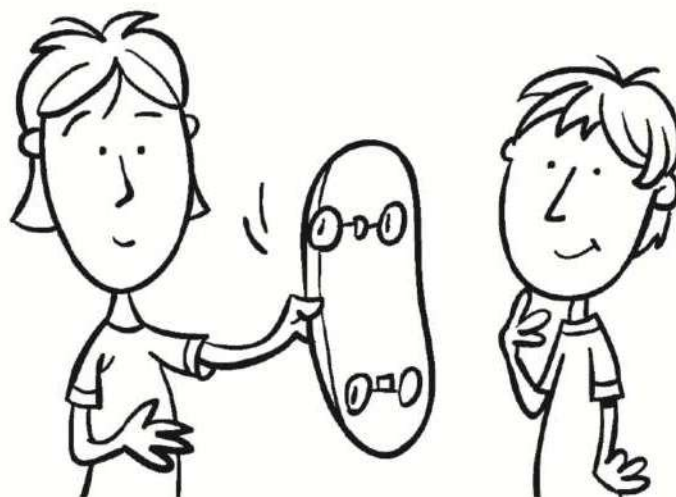

Sharing the Gospel

Imagine that in your church on Sunday, there were people near the altar selling cows, pigs, and sheep. A man was selling doves on the right. Bankers were giving change on the left. Your pastor got very angry. He turned over their tables. He shouted, "Get these animals out of here. How dare you turn my Father's house into a market!" They cleaned up and left. Your pastor knelt down and prayed, "Father, forgive them."
