BAPTISM: OUR CONSECRATION TO PRAYER

Have you ever considered that your baptism was not just a ceremony, but a consecration—a setting apart for something sacred?

Beloved Parishioners,

I wish to draw our hearts to this powerful truth, namely: that we are a people consecrated to prayer. And this consecration began the day we were plunged into the waters of Baptism. Through Baptism, we were not just washed of original sin—we were adopted into God's family, united with Christ in His death and resurrection (Colossians 2:12–14), and clothed with the dignity of the firstborn sons and daughters in Christ Jesus.

As baptized members of the Body of Christ, we have the right and privilege to stand in intercession—not only for ourselves but for our families, our parish, our nation, and the world. St. John Chrysostom once said: "The power of prayer has overcome enemies, extinguished wars, appeased God... it has bridled the fury of lions, silenced storms, and conquered demons." How humbling it is that we, like Abraham, are entrusted with such divine access.

But let's be honest: sometimes we forget or even neglect this important gift. Life is busy—between work, family, school ties, traffic, and daily stress, prayer can feel far away. And yet, St. Alphonsus Liguori reminds us: "Those who pray are certainly saved; those who do not pray are certainly lost." Prayer is not about fancy words. It's about the heart. It's about showing up—just like we call a loved one to stay connected, we are called to speak to our Father every day. As God's beloved children, we are called to speak to Him intimately, to bring our needs before Him, and to remain in constant union. It follows that prayer for us, is not optional—it is our very breath as Christians. It is what sustains us in grace. And remember prayer is not always about words. Sometimes it is silence. Sometimes it is tears. Sometimes, it's simply lighting a candle and sitting with God. As St. Teresa of Avila said, "Prayer is nothing but a friendly conversation with the One we know loves us."

We must constantly be aware that prayer is powerful, but it can be hindered. God is always ready to hear us. "The Lord's hand is not too short to save, nor his ear too dull to hear," says Isaiah 59:1. But the next verse warns us: "Your iniquities have been barriers between you and your God." (Isaiah 59:2). Sin closes the ears of our heart. It creates a chasm that weakens our communion with God. When we gossip, hold grudges, or live in selfishness, our prayers begin to feel empty. This teaches us that as baptized sons and daughters, we must strive for holiness—not out of fear, but because we love the One who first loved us. That's why we must return often to confession—to clear the channel, so to speak, and come back to prayer with clean hearts.

What privilege we have that Jesus himself teaches us how to pray. In Luke 11: 1–13, Jesus gives us the Our Father—not just as a formula, but as a school of prayer. We learn to call God Abba, Father. What a privilege! Through Baptism, the Spirit within us cries out, "Abba, Father!" (Romans 8:15). We no longer approach God as beggars, but as beloved children. Jesus also reminds us of God's generosity: "Ask and you will receive... how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!" (Luke 11:9,13). Let us, then, ask boldly, seek diligently, and knock persistently.

Dear brothers and sisters, Baptism made us more than churchgoers. It consecrated us people of prayer. Whether you're a student preparing for exams, a mother cooking for her family, or an elder sitting quietly with your Rosary, you are consecrated to prayer. Jesus said, "We ought always to pray and not lose heart." (Luke 18:1). In a world of troubles—be it economic hardship, insecurity, or loneliness—prayer is where we find our strength. And may the Blessed Virgin Mary, our Mother in faith, who pondered and prayed in all things, teach us to pray with her same trust and surrender. Amen.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Theme: The Family a Home Where God's Grace Dwells

Feast of the Holy Family Year A, December 28, 2025

First Reading: Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14, Second Reading: Colossians 3:12-21, Gospel: Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23

The summary of the message of the first reading is the honor and respect children are obligated to give to their parents. The amazing thing is that this honor to parents when practiced with love goes with lots of blessings as stated in the reading. Thus, the author of the book of Sirach enumerates these blessings to include:

- 1) They will earn great favor of God
- 2) Their prayers would always be listened to
- 3) They would enjoy a long life and be happy with children of their own
- 4) Even if they sinned, they would be forgiven

In the second reading, Paul encourages us to put on certain virtues as our cloth. These virtues are compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience, forbearance, and forgiveness. As such, love and peace reign in a family where these virtues are practiced by each member of the family. The gospel presents us with Jesus' presentation in the temple by his parents. The prophecies of Simeon and Anna at that time give credence to the prophetic mission of Jesus. Their prophecies give hope to what Jesus comes to achieve for humanity but not without cross and pain for Joseph and Mary and more especially for Mary the Mother. It gives us an idea of the cross every parent goes through in raising their children. There is no family no matter how holy, lovable, rich, or poor, that is insulated from problems and difficulties of family life.

However, just as Joseph and Mary found strength in the word of God to navigate through their problems, in the same way we can get through our own problems in our families if we hold firm to the word of God. Any family that allows God to be at the center of their marriage and family life will always be guided wisely despite the tragic situations they find themselves. No matter the love that exists between couples without strong recourse to God and prayers the vicissitudes of daily lives can always crack that love.

Dr. Paul Kelly an orthopedic surgeon and family counselor talks of the 7 "C's" that every family should imbibe to go through the storms of marriage and family life. The first C Commitment: a lifelong caring for the other and every member of the family. The second C, Communication: a willingness to take time to listen and dialogue and share one's feelings. The third C, Compatibility: ability to get along, adjust and be flexible. The fourth C is Compassion: a capacity to understand weakness and sympathize with failures. The fifth C is Confession: the readiness to say I am sorry to be reconciled and be forgiven. The sixth C is Conviviality: a sense of humor to laugh, smile and put a little joke, laugh at oneself, and make others laugh. The final C Children: they are special gifts from God. But to realize that one thing that children wear faster than shoes is parents.

I wish all of you and your families God's peace, blessing and love as we celebrate today's feast.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Our Lady of the Lake would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to everyone who adopted a gift from our Senior Gift Tree, our Youth Gift Tree, or both. Your selfless generosity truly captured the spirit of giving within our community and reminded those receiving these gifts that they are loved, remembered, and prayed for.

A special thank you to our youth group for helping set up the trees, delivering many of the gifts, and even spreading joy through Christmas caroling throughout the community. Your service, enthusiasm, and faith made this outreach truly special for all involved.

The Virtue for December is Hope
PRAYER FOR HOPE

Dear Jesus,

O Lord God, I hope by Your grace for the pardon of all my sins and after life here, to gain eternal happiness, because You have promised it, Who are infinitely powerful, faithful, kind, and merciful. In this hope I intend to live and die.

Amen

The school would like to extend our sincere gratitude to everyone who participated in and supported our annual raffle baskets. Through your generosity—whether by donating items, purchasing tickets, or helping spread the word—you helped make this fundraiser a wonderful success. The support of our school community plays an important role in enriching our students' educational experience, and we are truly thankful for each and every one of you.

Jubilee Year of Hope Banners

As the Jubilee Year of Hope draws to a close, we will be removing the banners which have been hanging in the church.

Did You Know?

A simple donation at Albertsons can help support Our Lady of the Lake Soup Kitchen!

When Albertsons asks if you'd like to donate $1, $3, $5, $10, or another amount to a local charity during November and December, that money stays right here in Lake Havasu City! 100% of donations are converted into Albertsons gift cards, which are then given to local food banks — including our Soup Kitchen. From December 2021 through February 2025, we received an incredible $77,500 in gift cards from Albertsons! So next time you're at checkout, just say "Yes!" — even a $1 donation makes a difference.

Thank you for helping feed our community!

It is also for any Catholic adult who needs to complete their sacraments of initiation (Holy Eucharist and Confirmation). And any Catholic who is interested in learning about the Faith more deeply is always welcome.

CELEBRATING THE JUBILEE CLOSING THE HOLY DOORS

TILMA

The closing of the Jubilee Year 2025 includes the sealing of the Holy doors at the major basilicas in Rome in December 2025 with the official end of the Jubilee Year being marked by the closing of the Holy Door at St. Peter's Basilica by Pope Leo on January 6, 2026, the feast of the Epiphany.

During this past year, we have tried to present you with every aspect of the Jubilee. We have had our own "holy door" in the Narthex with Jubilee information available to you. We have prayed the Jubilee prayer. We have lit the Jubilee candle at all Masses. We have encouraged pilgrimages to the designated sites in Arizona. These weekly articles on the Jubilee were meant to give you factual information about the Jubilee as well as to connect the Jubilee to the regular Liturgical Year. Our Lady of the Lake will formally close our Jubilee Year during the Masses on January 3 and 4, 2026. We will then turn our attention to the TILMA Project which was started last year by the Diocese of Phoenix to get ready for the 500th anniversary of Our Lady of Guadalupe. While we did try to bring that in during this past year, we will have a true focus on it for the next six years. More information to come later.

God bless you all in this Holiday Season and never forget that you are a Pilgrim of Hope and HOPE DOES NOT DISAPPOINT.

CELEBRANDO EL JUBILEO CIERRE DE LAS PUERTAS SAGRADAS

TILMA

El cierre del Año Jubilar 2025 incluye el sellado de las Puertas Sagradas en las basílicas principales de Roma en diciembre de 2025, marcando el fin oficial del Año Jubilar con el cierre de la Puerta Sagrada en la Basílica de San Pedro por el Papa León el 6 de enero de 2026, fiesta de la Epifanía.

Durante el año pasado, hemos tratado de presentarles todos los aspectos del Jubileo. Hemos tenido nuestra propia "puerta sagrada" en el Nártex con información del Jubileo disponible para ustedes. Hemos rezado la oración del Jubileo. Hemos encendido la vela del Jubileo en todas las Misas. Hemos fomentado las peregrinaciones a los lugares designados en Arizona. Estos artículos semanales sobre el Jubileo tenían como objetivo brindarles información fáctica sobre el Jubileo, así como conectar el Jubileo con el Año Litúrgico regular. Nuestra Señora del Lago cerrará formalmente nuestro Año Jubilar durante las Misas del 3 y 4 de enero de 2026. Luego dirigiremos nuestra atención al Proyecto TILMA que fue iniciado el año pasado por la Diócesis de Phoenix para prepararse para el 500 aniversario de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. Aunque intentamos incorporarlo durante el año pasado, tendremos un verdadero enfoque en ello durante los próximos seis años. Más información llegará más adelante. Dios los bendiga a todos en esta temporada navideña y nunca olviden que son Peregrinos de la Esperanza y LA ESPERANZA NO DECEPCIONA.

Pope Leo's Prayer

THE HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER
INTENTIONS JANUARY 2026

For prayer with the Word of God.

Let us pray that praying with the Word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.

The Unity Prayer

MY ADORABLE JESUS,
MAY OUR FEET JOURNEY TOGETHER.
MAY OUR HANDS GATHER IN UNITY.
MAY OUR HEARTS BEAT IN UNISON.
MAY OUR SOULS BE IN HARMONY.
MAY OUR THOUGHTS BE AS ONE.
MAY OUR EARS LISTEN TO THE SILENCE TOGETHER.
MAY OUR GLANCES
PROFOUNDLY
PENETRATE EACH OTHER.
MAY OUR LIPS PRAY TOGETHER TO GAIN MERCY FROM THE ETERNAL FATHER.
AMEN

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for keeping Jesus safe when he was a little baby.

Mission for the Week

If you were not safe, and if you had to move away in the middle of the night, list three small things you would want to bring along.

Sharing the Gospel

After King Herod found out that Jesus had been born, little Jesus was no longer safe. Herod did not want any other kings around, even baby kings like Jesus. In a dream, God warned Joseph that their little family needed to move far away from Herod. Joseph took Mary and Jesus and got out of Bethlehem as quickly and as quietly as they could. God protected little Jesus. God wants you to be safe, too.
