Pastor's Corner

Happy New Year to You My Beloved Parishioners

Beloved Parishioners,

The Jubilee Year of 2025, also known as the Ordinary Jubilee of Hope, proclaimed by Pope Francis, ends on January 6, 2026. It began on December 24, 2024, with the opening of the Holy Door at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. What this means is that we stirred the course of 2025 in the context of the Jubilee Year of Hope! That was significant to our day-to-day affairs and that alone could be the reason we drew strength to carry on all through 2025.

As we close the Jubilee Year of 2025, a time set aside for mercy, forgiveness, and renewal, we stand at the threshold of 2026 with clear eyes and steady resolve. This past year invited us to release grudges, reconcile broken relationships, and realign our lives with God's grace—challenges we met with varying success, but ones that sharpened our faith, nonetheless. Now, entering 2026, let us commit to a year defined by trust in God. Life's uncertainties—health struggles, financial pressures, global unrest—will persist, but so will His faithfulness. This is why the Bible in Lamentations 3:22-23 assures us that: "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness." May this be our source of trust and absolute abandonment of ourselves, our plans, and our move to God.

Trust means acting on His promises daily: seeking His guidance in decisions, leaning on His provision amid scarcity, and resting in His sovereignty when outcomes elude us. Scripture reminds us in Proverbs 3:5-6 to "trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight."

As the new year sets to roll in, I would recommend that you make this your practice: start each day in prayer, end it in gratitude, and face trials with the quiet confidence that God holds the future. 2026 can be a year of steady growth, not through our strength alone, but through unwavering trust in Him. Draw from Jeremiah 29:11 "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." This verse reminds us that earthly challenges do not derail divine purposes, offering assurance amid economic uncertainty and social unrest. May we strive to imbibe practical steps rooted in faith: daily prayer for wisdom in finances and relationships, community service to counter division, and gratitude practices to shift focus from scarcity to abundance.

I want us to frame 2026 as a year to rebuild hope through forgiveness and unity; this will mean actively practicing what we have learned during the Jubilee Year of Hope. Let me assure you that an absolute trust in God's sovereignty and providence fosters resilience and doggedness which are prerequisites for a successful 2026.

During the course of last year, we Americans faced significant economic pressures, including persistent inflation and rising costs of living that strained household budgets across the country. Healthcare affordability remained a top concern, with many struggling to cover medical expenses amid high out-of-pocket costs. Immigration issues dominated public discourse, fueled by border policies and asylum surges following political shifts. Political polarization and distrust in government deepened divisions, while worries about corruption in business and politics rose sharply. Drug addiction, violent crime, and gun violence continued to affect communities, though perceptions varied by political affiliation. Homelessness resonated locally, and emerging fears around AI's impact united concerns over jobs and regulation. Education faced ongoing gaps from learning disruptions, chronic absenteeism, and funding uncertainties tied to federal changes. But regardless of all that, we prevailed in and with Christ. This brings to mind Saint Paul's classic exhortation in Romans 8:37 where he declares, "No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us." Invariably, this particular verse captures the triumphant hope we must embody as we embrace 2026.

Happy new year to you all and don't forget to always pray and plan!

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Theme: Jesus is the Star that Guides all People

The Epiphany of the Lord Year A, January 4, 2026

First Reading: Isaiah 60:1-6, Second Reading: Ephesians 3:2-3, 5-6 Gospel: Matthew 2:1-12

Today, feast of the Epiphany, we celebrate Jesus the incarnate word being revealed to all the nations of the world. The Church calls it the feast of appearance or manifestation of the Lord. Epiphany comes from the Greek word and means “Manifestation”. The Church celebrates the light of God’s revelation of his Son as human in Jesus Christ. The story of the magi is the story of the ways in which God reveals Himself to us and even more about the different responses and reaction this revelation receives. The Lord of the universe who reveals the star of Bethlehem to the Gentiles of the East so they could come and worship Jesus, the Prince of Peace and Kings of Kings gives each one of us the same light of revelation to recognize and accept Jesus as Our Lord and Savior.

Jesus constantly reveals himself to us in different ways and our reactions vary as the people during the time of Jesus. In today’s feast of the Epiphany there are three major reactions to the revelation of Jesus. The first person is Herod and the likes of him. His reaction to the news of the revelation of a king born in Bethlehem was the reaction of hatred and hostility. In the same way, when you hear the word of God’s message which probes your conscience or challenges your life what is your reaction to it? Do you kill that message inside you or do you let it die gradually? Do you welcome it with joy and make an effort to change? What is your reaction?

The other group is the reaction of the Chief priests and scribes during the time of Jesus. They heard also about the birth of Jesus. Their reaction was that of complete indifference to the news. It did not make the slightest difference to them. They were so engrossed in their temple rituals and their legal discussion. They are more interested in their own affairs that Jesus’ birth means nothing to them. We too can be indifferent to the gospel message. We may be so concerned with our personal affairs that we don’t have time for God. This is the time to make a good examination of the time we give God.

Then we come to the last group, the reaction of the wise men from the East. The reaction of adoring worship, the desire to leave everything and seek him out where he is and worship him. The desire to lay at the feet of Jesus with noblest gifts which they could bring. These wise men are those who read the signs and stars in nature and according to their astonishing accurate knowledge something great has occurred in the Jewish nation, the birth of a very special king. Today’s feast teaches us that God speaks to us humans not only through the scriptures, he speaks also through the book of nature. However, the wise men from the East did not worship the stars that they saw, rather they worshipped the one to whom the star pointed them to. The events of nature most often point to us about the magnificent nature of God, and it is this God we should worship and not the nature that reveals the mighty deeds of God.

Finally, the Eucharist, Jesus’ presence in the tabernacle, is the same Jesus the wise men found in Mary’s arms. Let us be blessed as we worship Jesus in our Church.

Forming Courageous Catholics in the Virtues of Christ

Beloved Parishioners,

Greetings and Happy New Year!

During December, we celebrated several significant events at our school. Father Bona, Pastor of St. Gregory, visited and held Adoration on campus. We were blessed to have the opportunity to pray together, bless our school grounds and students, and even learn two new hymns. We are deeply appreciative of his efforts to help our students grow in faith. "Faith is to believe what you do not see; the reward of this faith is to see what you believe." — St. Augustine

We also completed our basket raffles and are so grateful to all of you for helping reach our goal. We ended the semester with a beautiful Christmas concert and Christmas play. Thank you to our music teacher, Mrs. Kathy Gricar, for her dedication to our students and school. Our students enjoyed PE in the Park, a monthly activity that enriches our physical education program by giving students access to larger spaces and additional equipment. We are grateful to Mr. Phil, our PE teacher, for continuing this tradition.

We also hosted our annual Spelling Bee, and the winner, Bristol Jaboro, will be representing our school at the county-level competition in February. Please pray for her success!

As we prepare for the second semester, we are also beginning preparations for our 8th-grade graduation. This year's class includes six eighth-grade students who have been part of our school community since preschool and will soon be journeying on to high school. We would greatly appreciate your support in helping us celebrate this special milestone. If you would like to contribute, monetary donations or 2026-themed graduation decorations may be dropped off at the school office. Thank you for helping us make this a beautiful and memorable celebration for our graduates.

We invite you to join us for our Open House on January 29, 2026, from 5:30pm to 6:30 PM. We will be kicking off enrollment for the 2026–2027 school year.

Thank you for your continued prayers and support of our mission. May God bless you abundantly in this new year!

Blessings,
Brittney Delgado
Principal

Prayer

Lord, I offer you my words, my actions, and my thoughts.

Mission for the Week

I will remember that each day of my life is a gift.

Sharing the Gospel

It may be hard to find the star in the east, but God will always show you how to find him. Bow before the altar of God and give the baby Jesus three presents of your own. For gold, share your goodness with others. For frankincense, send your prayers up to God for yourself, your family, and your friends. For myrrh, follow God's words like a sweet perfume.

Inside the box, draw a gift that you would like to get some day!
