TILMA: El Camino Real Year Two of The Pastoral Plan

Beloved Parishioners,

Today my reflection focuses on the second year of TILMA of the seven-year pastoral plan of Bishop John Dolan of our diocese. Last year he instituted a seven-year pastoral plan that will end in 2031 to mark the five hundred years of the apparition of Our Lady of Guadalupe to Saint Juan Diego. In the first year, the bishop invited us to reflect with the tender heart of our mother Mary of Guadalupe and to step out and become evangelizers with the ten hopes of the year of jubilee proposed by Pope Francis. The focus in that first year was to ignite our diocese, our parishes and our families with the flame of hope that our belief in Christ affords us.

In this second year the theme is called El Camino Real (the True and Royal Road). He wants a deeper commitment to the issue of evangelization as we walk on this road with faith and trust bearing joyful witness that Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life. I would add that joyful witness to one's faith in following Jesus as the way the truth and life is the greatest way to evangelize. When we follow the path of Jesus, we bear a true witness with joy because to follow the true road is to follow the way to life. The way to life is no other way than Jesus himself who guides us in the right direction

The two foundations on which this year's theme El Camino Real center are the apparition to Saint Juan Diego and the second is the USCCB pastoral vision for the Hispanic ministry. In the words of the Bishop Dolan people want to know the way and Christ is the only way that is credible and authentic. There is no other way that guarantees life except in Jesus. As Juan Diego was interrupted on his way to Mass, given a very important message so Jesus meets us at various paths of our lives. When we allow Jesus to lead, when we follow his direction and guidance, we are sure to be in the right direction.

We as a parish are encouraged to rediscover that Jesus is as the only way that leads to true life. At times we fall into different paths in our search for a way but rediscovering that Jesus is not just the true way, but the way himself calls us to share that testimony with other people we encounter. This can be done by following the example of Juan Diego who goes to share his testimony with others.

Another aspect of this second year of the TILMA is a call to strong faith, belief and trust in Christ who is our way that leads to eternal life. The world today is confronted with so many crises, war, political turmoil, family disintegration, and economic instability. We are called to deepen our faith, trust and confidence in God that he walks with us even amid all these challenges. God never abandons us as his love endures forever.

Finally, as a parish every second Sunday of the month a part of the TILMA will be shared during the Sunday homily to help us dive deeper into a better understanding of meaning of the TILMA and Our Lady of Guadalupe. On the second Friday of the month the school kids will have the opportunity to be educated about TILMA. The committee for the celebration would equally be sharing slides and reflection in the bulletin to assist us enter the spirit of the bishop's pastoral plan.

Theme: Add Flavor to Lives of People Around You

5th Sunday of the Year A, February 8, 2026

First Reading: Isaiah 58:7-10, Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:1-5, Gospel: Matthew 5:13-16

In the ancient period and time of Jesus, salt was of a great value. It serves multiple purposes. It was used to purify things. When things like fruits and vegetables are sensed to be contaminated, salt is used to wash it and purify it. The Romans said that salt was the purest of all things because it came from the purest of things, the sun and the sea. It was used for preservatives, thus, to keep meat from decaying salt was used to keep it fresh. However, the greatest and most obvious quality of salt is that salt lends flavor to things. We all know how insipid a food without salt tastes. Thus, Jesus very much aware of the great value of salt in his time uses it to point to his followers what they are expected to be.

Therefore, when Jesus says in today's Gospel you are the salt of the earth, he is inviting us as his followers to have a certain antiseptic influence in the life of the people we meet. He wants us to live our Christian lives in such a way that we preserve goodness in the world. He wants us to be agents of purification in our lives and the lives of people we encounter. He is also challenging us to add flavor to the lives of people we meet. Failure to be any of these in the society we live raises a serious question about our Christian life. If we as Christians cannot be an agent of positive change and influence in the society in which we live what use is our Christianity. Life becomes tasty and full of flavor when it contains the salt of Jesus, his words, his loving kindness, his benevolence, his merciful forgiving, in a word his love. According to William Barclays "We are meant to be salt of the earth, and if we do not bring to life the purity, the antiseptic power, the radiance that we ought, then we invite disaster."

Jesus says "you are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden." The first meaning of this claim is that a Christian is meant to be one who stands out positively. As light of the world, it means that our light should even be more visible in the ordinary activities of the world. Jesus by this invitation demands that we should be nothing less than what he is. Another characteristic of light is that light guides and directs us. That is why we obey the traffic light because it guides and directs us not to collide with others while driving. In the same way a Christian is meant to be a guide that can lead people positively. As Christians who have the light and grace of God within us, we should be people who lead others to the truth. It means Christians must be good examples of people to follow. That is why Pope Paul VI said that people are ready to listen more to preachers who lead by example.

Then the next question for consideration is how we can be truly and concretely salt of the earth and light of the world. The answer is seen in the first reading of today from Isaiah the prophet when he says "Thus, says the Lord, share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless, cloth the naked when you see them, then your light shall break forth like the dawn." He goes on to say, if you remove from your midst oppression, false accusation and malicious speech; then light shall rise for you in the darkness, and the gloom shall become for you like midday.

Our Lady's School Corner

Forming Courageous Catholics in the Virtues of Christ

Beloved Parishioners,

Our Lady of the Lake Catholic School had a very busy and joyful month of January. Our staff participated in Kagan training, a fruitful day of professional learning focused on strengthening student engagement and collaboration in the classroom.

Thanks to the generous donation from the Missionaries of Mary, we were blessed to distribute over 500 pairs of shoes to our school families at no cost. We were also honored to welcome balloon pilots as they prepared for the Havasu Balloon Festival, and we joyfully celebrated our 100th day of school! Lastly, our third and fourth-grade students enjoyed a field trip to In and Out, where they learned the way the restaurant operates and enjoyed a delicious meal.

Most importantly, we celebrated Catholic Schools Week, a special time to recognize the value of Catholic education and the blessings of our school community. (Photos from these events will be featured in next week's bulletin.)

We sincerely thank our parish community for your continued prayers, generosity, and support of Catholic education.

Catholic Schools Week also marked the opening of registration for the 2026–2027 school year. We are currently enrolling students in Preschool through 8th grade. Several classes are already nearing capacity and will soon begin waitlists—wonderful news for our growing school!

Our mission at Our Lady of the Lake is “forming courageous Catholics in the virtues of Christ.” This means we strive to educate the whole child—mind, body, and spirit—by nurturing faith, academic excellence, moral character, and service to others. Through prayer, learning, and daily practice of Christ-centered virtues such as compassion, integrity, and courage, we prepare our students to live out their faith confidently and to be leaders rooted in God's love.

As we continue through this school year, we ask for your prayers as we remain steadfast in our mission and trust in God's plan. “Let us not grow weary in doing good, for in due season we shall reap, if we do not lose heart.” —Galatians 6:9

May God bless our students, families, staff, and parish community.

Blessings,
Brittney Delgado
Principal
