Abram places trust in God's promise of making his name and descendants great on earth. In Jesus' transfigured glory is revealed that life and immortality will rob death of its power.

Pastor's Corner

"WATCH AND PRAY SO THAT YOU WILL NOT FALL INTO TEMPTATION" — MATTHEW 26:41

Beloved Parishioners,

As we begin the great season of Lent let us draw attention to temptation which is part of our daily battle in spiritual journey. The reason we harp on the possibility and occurrence of temptation at the beginning of the Lenten season is simply because whenever we are inclined to a practice of higher virtues and observances such as are demanded of us during Lent — prayer, fasting or abstinence, and alms giving, temptation to either abandon them or derail from their authentic practice abound. Jesus, upon inviting three of His disciples to prayer in the garden of Gethsemane and returning to find them heavily sleeping remarked thus: "Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation" (Matthew 26:41). This shall be an injunction and a reminder unto us as we journey through the Lenten period.

Temptation is a universal experience that every Christian faces in their walk of faith. Whether it is the lure of materialism, pride, anger, lust, or other forms of sin, temptation has been a constant challenge since the fall of man, but for us Christians, the experience of temptation is not merely a trial to endure but an opportunity to grow in faith and become more like Christ. Jesus himself was tempted three times by the devil but Jesus defeated him using the powerful words of the Scripture (Matthew 4:1-11, Mark 1:12-13, and Luke 4:1-13), and the Bible records that "When the devil had finished all this tempting, he left him until an opportune time" (Luke 4:13). This implies that the temptation by the Devil of Christians has not come to a definitive end. Thus, for every Christian, encountering temptation is inevitable since the Devil is always at work tempting every believer and testing their faith. It is for us to resolve, with the help of God and prayer, to wither the tempter's whims and caprices and grow stronger in faith.

To be sure, temptation is not a sin on its own, but what truly matters is how one responds to it. Our response to temptation determines our moral culpability. The Bible provides clear guidance on how to approach and resist temptation. In 1 Corinthians 10:13, Paul reminds Christians that, "No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it." This verse highlights two crucial elements: first, that temptation is a shared experience, and second, that God will provide a way out.

One major temptation by the devil of modern-day Christians subsists in our proclivity or inclination to think that the devil does not exist. The more we deny his existence, the more we downplay his work and get caught up in his webs. Robert Cardinal Sarah opines that "Satan loves nothing so much as the darkness in which he lies; the more hidden the devil, the more effective he is." (Sarah, 2015). During his pontificate, Pope Francis had frequently spoken about the existence of the devil. There is no better way to understand the existence of the devil than through his works. St. Peter who once came under the scourge of the tempter's minion and who was supported by Christ's prayer (Luke 22:31-32), counsels us when he writes: "Be calm but vigilant. Because your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that the family of believers throughout the world is undergoing the same kind of sufferings." (1 Peter 5:8-9). To be concluded next week...

Theme: A Journey of Faith Toward Holiness

2nd Sunday of Lent of the Year A, March 1, 2026

First Reading: Genesis 12:1-4a, Second Reading: 2 Timothy 1:8-10, Gospel: Matthew 17:1-9

The liturgy of this second Sunday of Lent invites us to a faith journey to a greater holiness of life, through a profound life of prayer, charity and fasting. These exercises when done in a humility of spirit draws us closer to God. The journey towards holiness requires faith which motivates us to a life of true prayer and sacrifices. The First reading is a call of Abraham to begin a journey of faith to an unknown destination but known to God who called him. The period of Lent is also a call to begin a journey of faith that will culminate in the death and Resurrection of Christ at Easter. Abraham steps out with faith not knowing where he was going but relies on the fact that God is a faithful one who will always keep his promises. As we continue our journey in this season of grace let us not lose sight that his promises are eternal, and God will give us the graces we need.

The second reading exalts us to bear the hardship that comes from the gospel with the strength that comes from God. To be able to bear the hardship that comes from the Gospel is our witness to the world of our faith in Jesus who is our savior. When we bear such hardship from the Gospel with patience and an open spirit it gives credence to our love of Christ. The period of Lent is the period we undertake some physical deprivation on ourselves which is geared towards a holy life. According to John Bergsma “Holiness is a profound concept. It entails morally upright behavior, which is not enough.” The holy is that which mediates the divine presence. So, we need upright lives which are, moreover, touched with divine grace, infused with the Holy Spirit. People should be able to say, “He’s not just a good person but a godly person. Those who are seeking God should be drawn to us because they sense the presence of God in our lives.”

The Gospel is the story of the transfiguration of Jesus. The message of the transfiguration is that when are able to endure the cross the transfiguration is what follows where we would be transformed, to see the face of God. Peter before the transfiguration rebuked Jesus for saying the Messiah would suffer and it was to show Peter what awaits the Messiah at the end that he took him up the mountain. It is a foretaste of the Glory of Christ at the resurrection. “The sight of his glory is given to Peter, James and John to encourage them to persevere through the difficult times that lay in front of them before they witness Christ’s resurrection.” The passage is meant to encourage us to continue to remain steadfast in our resolve to do penance during this Lenten Season with the hope that something greater awaits us at the end. However, it is not just during this Lenten season but to continue to persevere in our journey of faith with hope that we would be rewarded with seeing the face of God at the end.

Our Lady's School Corner

Forming Courageous Catholics in the Virtues of Christ

Beloved Parishioners,

We have had a very busy and exciting quarter at our school! Our students have enjoyed several enriching field trips. Our third and fourth-graders visited In-N-Out Burger to learn about how a corporate business is run. Our fifth and sixth-grade students explored nature at the Bill Williams River National Wildlife Refuge, and all of our students enjoyed a beautiful day at Cypress Park.

We were also blessed to begin our annual Patriotic Club, where students have the privilege of learning about America, the Constitution, and what makes our country such a beautiful place to live. In addition, we welcomed special visitors from Arizona State Parks, who taught us about our National and Arizona State Parks and the importance of preserving God's creation.

As we enter the holy season of Lent, our students will be attending Mass twice a week. We do this to help them understand from a young age that Lent is a sacred time in our Catholic tradition—a season of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. It is a time to reflect on Christ's sacrifice, to turn our hearts more fully toward God, and to grow in holiness through small acts of love and self-denial. By participating more frequently in the Mass, our students are reminded that Lent calls us to renewal, gratitude, and deeper faith. You can stream our weekly masses thanks to our streaming club, which works behind the scenes to make mass available more frequently to our parish.

Did you know that in the state of Arizona, you can donate your tax liability to our school and help students receive a Catholic education at little to no cost to their families? This is a wonderful opportunity to support our mission while redirecting your state tax dollars to make a lasting impact. Please see Barb in our front office or speak with your tax professional for more details.

We also look forward to our annual musical, Hippie Flower Power, scheduled for April 28, 2026, in St. Joseph Hall at 6:00 PM. We hope to see you there as we celebrate the many talents of our students!

Thank you for your continued prayers, generosity, and support of our school community. May this Lenten season draw us all closer to Christ and inspire us to give with joyful hearts.

“Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.”
