Jesus is our resurrection and our life. Because he has given us of the Spirit, we are no longer dead because of sin, but alive. In Jesus is the fullness of redemption.

ALMSGIVING: AN EXPRESSION OF OUR CLOSENESS TO THE POOR

Beloved Parishioners,

As we know almsgiving stands as one of the three pillars of Lenten observance, alongside prayer and fasting, and is seen as an invitation to grow in solidarity with the poor and the marginalized in recognition that Christ himself identified with the poor. In the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus reminds us his followers, "For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me" (Matthew 25:35). This passage is our authentic motivation and nothing more, coupled with the fact that Lent, as a time of penance and spiritual renewal, is an opportunity for us to realign our hearts with the poor, through almsgiving, since it is an essential part of living out Jesus' commandment to love our neighbor.

Although almsgiving serves as a tangible way for us to engage in selflessness and generosity, we must note that it is not simply about donating money or goods like many humanitarian centers do, but about developing a spirit of compassion and humility in imitation of Christ. Jesus invites us in Matthew 11:29, "Learn from me for I am gentle and humble of heart," thus by giving to the poor during Lent, we make a conscious decision to turn away from selfishness and self-indulgence, choosing instead to live in solidarity with those who suffer so that we may emulate Christ. Almsgiving also provides an excellent opportunity for us to counterbalance the excesses of modern consumerism, which often fosters indifference to the plight of the disadvantaged.

As a parish, our communal observance of almsgiving symbolizes an expression of the Church's proximity to the poor, especially those who experience poverty, injustice, and exclusion. The Church, as the body of Christ, is called to imitate Christ's compassion for the marginalized and the Church's closeness to the poor is not distant or abstract; it is lived out in real, tangible acts of service, from the local parish level as ours, to global humanitarian efforts. Another conversational attribute of almsgiving during Lent is that it brings us to a reflective awareness of our need to change the way the poor are treated in society. Often these categories of people are despised and denigrated even unconsciously by society and by us. Therefore, by reaching out to them in a respectful and dignified way during Lent, we communicate to them a sense of their own dignity, in the face of the contrary message which they continually receive from society. It is as though we say to them: "the society may look down on you but me, and the God from whom I come, we acknowledge your dignity and recognize its equality with that of everyone in the society." When we do this with sober reflections and every sense of piety, we extend Jesus' ministry to them who came "to set the downtrodden free, to proclaim the Lord's year of favor." (Lk. 4 :18).

Considered from a spiritual perspective, the Bible assures us that "almsgiving saves from death and purges away every sin. Those who give alms are doing a great thing and will be greatly rewarded." (Tobit 132:9), but we must be careful to maintain the right attitude to almsgiving. We must not give alms for a show because that displeases God. Matthew 6:1-4 cautions us thus: "Be careful not to practice your righteousness in front of others to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven. So, when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by men."

Beloved parishioners, I'd like to encourage that our small efforts at charity, our little struggles to accomplish almsgiving, at various assistance as a parish through which we try to improve the life of those who are poor, isolated, struggling, are our own way of participating in the kingdom project of Christ. Everything about how we do it and the manner we indulge in it should represent what we stand for. Pope Paul VI reminds us that modern man is best impressed by example of witnesses like us more than a long sermon. As we generously give alms during this holy season, may our hearts and lives be transformed and may we be challenged to build a more compassionate and just world. Amen.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Theme: Miracles Do Happen When We Cooperate with God's Command

5th Sunday of Lent of the Year A, March 22, 2026

First Reading: Ezekiel 37:12-14, Second Reading: Romans 8:8-11, Gospel: John 11:1-45

It is one of the most precious things in life to have a house and a home into which one can go at any time and find rest and understanding and peace and love. That was doubly true for Jesus, for he had no home of his own: he had nowhere to lay his head. (Luke 9:58) In the home at Bethany, he had just such a place. There, three people loved him and there he could find rest from the tension of life. Their house was a home for him.

A story is told of a boy whose parents were living in a very poor hotel because they could not afford money to rent a house. One day the small boy went to school and one of his classmates told him that they have a magnificent house, but it is not a home. The small boy told the classmate we have a beautiful home, but we are looking for a house to put it in. A house alone does not make a home. What makes a home is the peace and love that is shared by the members of the household. How is your own home? Is it a place one comes in and finds peace, love and understanding like the home in Bethany? The greatest gift any human being can give another is understanding and peace. To have a home where you can go at any time knowing that your dreams will not be laughed at or your confidences will not be misunderstood is an amazing something to have. Jesus found that in the home of Lazarus, Martha and Mary.

Of all the miracles Jesus did, the raising of Lazarus ranks as the most astonishing to the people of his time. Traditional Jewish belief had it that the soul of a dead person somehow remains with the body for three days. After three days the soul departs finally from the body never to return, and that is when corruption sets in. When Martha objects to the opening of the tomb and says, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days" (John 11:39), she is expressing the common view that this is now a hopeless situation. Is that why Jesus delayed coming to the funeral, to let the situation become "impossible" before acting on it? G.K. Chesterton once said, "Hope means hoping when things are hopeless, or it is no virtue at all." In traditional Jewish mentality bringing back to life a person who is already four days dead and decaying is as unthinkable as the prophet Ezekiel's vision in which the grey, dry bones of the dead are miraculously restored to life.

For the early Christians the story of the raising of Lazarus was more than a pointer to the resurrection of Jesus. Jesus rose on the third day; his body never saw corruption. For them this miracle is a challenge to never give up hope even in the hopeless situations in which they found themselves as individuals, as a church or as a nation. It is never too late for God to revive and revitalize a person, a church, or a nation. However, the miracle occurred because Jesus issues three commands and all of them are obeyed to the letter. First, "Jesus said, 'Roll away the stone.' So, they rolled away the stone" The second command Jesus gives is directed to the dead man: "'Lazarus, come out!' and the dead man came out" The third command again is addressed to the people, "Unbind him, and let him go" (verse 44). Even though Lazarus could stumble himself out of the tomb, there was no way he could unbind himself. He needs the community to do that for him. By unbinding Lazarus and setting him free from the death bands, the community is accepting Lazarus back as one of them. By listening to Jesus and obeying his commands a miracle happens.

The service of Tenebrae, or “shadows” grew out of a combination of night prayers and early morning prayers, with an additional focus on the commemoration of the Passion of our Lord. This service is tradition, used in the last days of Holy Week, to impress upon the hearts of believers the awful consequences of sin and the magnitude of the Savior’s sacrifice. Please join us immediately after the Tenebrae for prayer service as we burn last year’s Holy Oils, palms, and other religious articles in preparation for the parish’s reception of this year’s Holy Oils.

Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord’s Supper April 2, 2026 - 7:00 pm

During the Last Supper, Christ performs an act of love and service in the washing of the feet of His disciples. This humble act was Jesus’ way of teaching His disciples and us to give respect and serve. One way that we do this, as a parish, is that we remember those who go hungry by bringing a non-perishable food item to be placed around the altar during Offertory on Holy Thursday. The food donations and any monetary donations will be given to the Soup Kitchen.

Disposal of Palms and Blessed Religious Articles

If you have any old blessed palms, other religious articles or prayer books that have lost their usefulness, you may have them disposed of at the Burning of Holy Oils after Tenebrae on Holy Wednesday, April 1, 2026.

Please place your old, broken or unwanted religious articles in the basket in the Narthex by 12:00 noon on Wednesday, April 1, 2026.

HISTORY OF THE AZTECS BEFORE THE APPARITION OF OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

The Aztec Indians were a pagan people in Mexico who believed in many gods. They did not love these gods, they feared them. They believed that, in order to have the sun shine, the rains come, and all other necessary aspects of life, they needed to appease these gods. They believed that the gods required human hearts and human blood. Therefore, they killed and sacrificed thousands of humans, in order to give the gods what they believed they needed to sustain their lives. This went on for many years until the Spanish Conquistadores came and conquered the Aztec Empire. They brought with them Christianity and a new way to govern the people. Christian missionaries worked to convert the indigenous people but had difficulty with the language and the native culture. After the appearance of Our Lady to Juan Diego and the convincing of the Bishop by her image on Juan's tilma, the missionaries found their missions packed with people demanding Baptism. The natives traveled for miles bringing their pagan idols to be burned, accepting penances, and regularizing their marriages. They even had mass baptism ceremonies to keep up with the demand until the Vatican barred this practice. There was an astonishing yield in Mexico in the 1530's of nine and ten million converts to the Church within a few years. Even the twelve Apostles, who drew thousands to the Christian faith during their time could not compare to these numbers. The credit for this vast evangelization goes to Our Lady of Guadalupe. We will learn more about this over the next few months.

HISTORIA DE LOS AZTECAS ANTES DE LA APARICIÓN DE NUESTRA
SEÑORA DE GUADALUPE

Los indios aztecas eran un pueblo pagano en México que creía en muchos dioses. No amaban a estos dioses, los temían. Creían que, para que el sol brillara, las lluvias vinieran y todos los demás aspectos necesarios de la vida se cumplieran, debían apaciguar a estos dioses. Creían que los dioses requerían corazones humanos y sangre humana. Por lo tanto, mataban y sacrificaban a miles de personas para dar a los dioses lo que ellos creían que necesitaban para sostener sus vidas. Esto continuó durante muchos años hasta que los conquistadores españoles llegaron y conquistaron el Imperio Azteca. Trajeron consigo el cristianismo y una nueva forma de gobernar al pueblo. Los misioneros cristianos trabajaron para convertir a los pueblos indígenas, pero tuvieron dificultades con el idioma y la cultura nativa. Después de la aparición de Nuestra Señora a Juan Diego y de la convicción del obispo por la imagen en la tilma de Juan, los misioneros encontraron sus misiones llenas de gente demandando el Bautismo. Los indígenas viajaban millas trayendo sus ídolos paganos para ser quemados, aceptando penitencias y regularizando sus matrimonios. Incluso tenían ceremonias masivas de bautismo para satisfacer la demanda hasta que el Vaticano prohibió esta práctica. Hubo un rendimiento asombroso en México en la década de 1530, con nueve y diez millones de conversos a la Iglesia en pocos años. Incluso los doce Apóstoles, que atraían a miles a la fe cristiana durante su tiempo, no podrían compararse con estos números. El mérito de esta vasta evangelización se le atribuye a Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. Aprenderemos más sobre esto en los próximos meses.
