Jesus, humbling himself out of love for us, did not shield his face from buffets and spitting, but offered his life on the cross. He relied on his Father's love.

Pastor's Corner

THE PASCHAL MYSTERY OF CHRIST

Beloved Parishioners,

The Paschal Mystery reveals how Christ's suffering and resurrection reconcile humanity to God. By His death, He destroys sin and death; by His resurrection, He restores life and offers eternal hope (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 654). Historically, the Paschal Mystery connects Old Testament events with their fulfillment in Christ. For instance, the Passover sacrifice in Exodus foreshadows Jesus' role as the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world (John 1:29).

It is for the sake of our active participation in the Paschal mystery of Christ that the liturgical calendar is sequentially arranged to help immerse us in the liturgical events reenacting this salutary event. Hence in the liturgical calendar, we have seasons like Lent which prepare us through penance, charity, and abstinence for Easter's celebration and the climax of the Lenten season is the Holy Week. The Holy Week is the most sacred period in the liturgical calendar, commemorating the final days of Jesus Christ's earthly life, His Passion, death, and resurrection. The liturgical observances surrounding Holy Week evolved to commemorate these events as pivotal moments in our salvation history such that its solemnity disposes and immerses our hearts into the mystery of salvation history.

During the Holy Week, we reenact through the liturgy, the pivotal moments in Christ's Paschal Mystery beginning with Palm Sunday when we recall Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem with palm processions, reflecting His fulfillment of prophecy and foreshadowing His Passion. During the Sacred Triduum beginning with Holy Thursday, we revivify the Last Supper through Eucharistic celebrations and the washing of feet which symbolize service and love; the solemn service of Good Friday brings us to focus on Christ's suffering and death. Through prayerful participation in the Stations of the Cross, we meditate on His journey to Calvary; on Holy Saturday night, the Easter Vigil, we mark a transition from mourning to joy. This glorious night features readings that recount salvation history from creation to resurrection, culminating in the proclamation of Christ's victory over death.

Some tasks behoove us which are: since the Church earnestly desires that all the faithful should be led to that fully conscious, and active participation in liturgical celebrations which is demanded by the very nature of the liturgy (Sacrosanctum Concilium, 14), I invite us to follow up all the events that will feature in our parish program during the course of the Holy Week with attention, and devotion and utmost sense of solemnity. Since we have ardently prepared during Lent for this moment, I challenge us to try as much as possible to immerse ourselves completely in the mystery of Christ's Passion and allow nothing to distract us. Always remember that our disposition during the Liturgy counts a lot in determining the extent to which God's grace will perfect its work in us.

Second, the Paschal Mystery ushers us into our salvation history by offering a path from sin to freedom in Christ. Through its celebration, we are called to die to sin and rise to new life with Christ (Romans 6:4). We should ensure that during this period we avail ourselves of sacramental confession to adequately prepare our hearts for Easter. Because it is expressly the sacraments—especially the Eucharist—that serve as tangible means by which this mystery is communicated to us.

More so, in order to unfold fruitfully the meaning of the Paschal Mystery, let us not forget that the reason for Christ's death on the cross is love and that love we must show to our ourselves, our neighbors, family members and fellow parishioners. Paul reminds us to always put on the attitude and mindset of Christ in our relationships with one another who never thought himself superior but remained humble even unto death (Phil. 2:5-11).

In essence, we ought to bear in mind always that the Paschal Mystery is not merely a liturgical outing in the Church, but an experiential and mystical source of grace. If we participate fully with our hearts and mind, the events commemorating the Paschal Mystery of Christ will transform our lives by drawing us into deeper communion with God's saving plan. It is in this regard that I encourage everyone of you to endeavor to participate actively in this year's Holy Week liturgy. It is important and it helps us understand very well the mystery we celebrate as Catholics.

Theme: Jesus Humbles Himself Out of Love He Has for Us

Palm Sunday Year A, March 29, 2026

First Reading: Isaiah 52:13-53, Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16, Gospel: John 18:1-19

The passion narrative gives us an insight of what Jesus suffered for us, especially the love he has for us that made him endure all the insults and humiliation for our sake. Today's liturgy does not require a long homily but allows the events of the passion story to speak directly to us in the silence of our heart. Our meditation is on Jesus' suffering and death for our sake. He gave himself completely to us by preaching, miracles and healing and sacrificing himself humbly on the cross.

Today begins the most sacred week we call the Holy Week in our Christian liturgy. One of the ways we can participate actively in this week's events and enjoy the beauty of the celebration is to maintain some levels of interior silence and quietness. The Church invites us to open ourselves since we have all gathered with faith to commemorate that triumphal entry into Jerusalem. If we participate in this journey with our Lord, we are sure to rise with him on Easter Sunday. Jesus entered Jerusalem riding on an ass because to ride on a horse for the Jews would indicate a warlord but on an ass signifies that the person is for peace and wants peace. That is why he reprimands Peter when Peter cuts off the ear of the high priest's servant to shield his sword because he came for peace.

The focus of triumph of Jesus is his triumph over evil, death, sin, and suffering. Jesus has foreseen all his sufferings and death he was about to undergo and how he will be ill-treated by those he has cared for, by those he fed when they were hungry, those he healed their sickness and cured their infirmities. These are the same people who would insult him and make all kinds of mockery of him. One would have expected him to withdraw back amid all these evils but since he has come to defeat the power of evil over humanity, he remained firm. He was obedient unto death that even when the passersby made mockery of him by telling him "if you are the son God save yourself by coming down from the cross!" He chose to remain there because he knew that is the only way to save the world. The devil does not like the cross and wants to take him away from the cross. In our own lives too, we encounter situations whereby we wish to avoid the cross and to choose the easy way out. Jesus' example of choosing to remain on the cross instead of coming down is a clear indication that we should not listen to voices that would want to distract us from carrying our own cross in life when the situation calls for it.

Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem should also be an opportunity to reflect on how often we triumph over sin, negative forces and evil that come our way in our daily lives. It would be good if we use the Palm Sunday of this particular year to put things straight in our lives.

Wishing you all a Blessed Holy Week Celebration.

Blessed Easter and a Heartfelt Note of Gratitude

My dear friends,

On April 9th, I celebrate 21 years as a Priest. As I look back, I don't just see years –"I see a long, beautiful road paved with God's love, care, providence and protection. There hasn't been a single moment, through all the ups and downs, where I didn't feel His hand holding mine. I have felt the grace of Jesus in my tired moments, the Holy Spirit whispering which way to turn, and Mama Mary's quiet care every day. I know that the Angels and Saints have been praying for me through this life, but I also know that your prayers have also been my great strength.

Although I have only been here a while, you have become my family. You have shared your lives, your tears, your joys, and your laughter with me, and for that, I thank you very sincerely. I also thank you for accepting me as I am and for accompanying me with your prayers, words of encouragement, and appreciation! Being a priest for Jesus and His people is the greatest gift of my life, even though I do not deserve it, as unworthy as I am.

This year, my anniversary feels even more special because it falls during Easter Week. To me, in this context, the priesthood and Easter are the exact same: they are both about the hope that Light always follows the darkness, as every Holy Mass a priest offers reminds us that because Jesus rose from His tomb, we can all rise above our own tombs of tears, failures, uncertainties, and worries and live in His peace and hope!

Right after the Easter Sunday 7:00 a.m. Mass on April 5th, I will be departing for a six-week journey to India. I am eager to reconnect with my mother, my siblings, and my entire family in the South, before traveling to my diocese nestled in the Himalayas in the North. It has been a full year since I last saw them, and I am looking forward to this time of rest and reconnection. Since many of you will have returned to your own homes by the time I get back on May 16th, I want to take this moment also to thank you deeply for your love, support, and prayers!

Please keep me in your thoughts on April 5th as I begin my travels, and again on April 9th as I enter into another year of His mercy; you will certainly be in mine. Let us meet in prayer until we see each other again in person!

God bless you wherever you are and whatever you do!

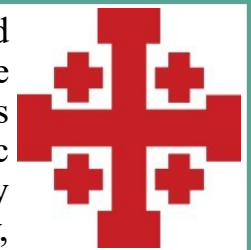

With all gratitude and an Easter Blessing,

Fr. J. Thomas

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few. The pandemic had hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them depend on pilgrimages for work. The war and now the Iranian conflict have made their situation even more dire. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. PLEASE BE GENEROUS! The service of Tenebrae, or 'shadows' grew out of a combination of night prayers and early morning prayers, with an additional focus on the commemoration of the Passion of our Lord. This service is tradition, used in the last days of Holy Week, to impress upon the hearts of believers the awful consequences of sin and the magnitude of the Savior's sacrifice. Please join us immediately after the Tenebrae for prayer service as we burn last year's Holy Oils, palms, and other religious articles in preparation for the parish's reception of this year's Holy Oils.

Prayer

Jesus, help me to treat you like my king.

Mission for the Week

Make your own palm branch to wave for Jesus at home. Cut an oval out of green construction paper. Then make cuts toward the middle (but not all the way through) for leaves.

Sharing the Gospel

Many years earlier, God's prophets had written about the Savior. He would heal the blind, he would raise the dead, and he would ride into Jerusalem on a donkey as a gentle king. The people knew Jesus was the Savior they had been waiting for. They treated him like a king.

Now color the picture! →

Help Jesus get to Jerusalem.

Entrance Song

The King of Glory

Willard Jabusch

Refrain: The King of Glory comes, the nation rejoices. Open the gates before him, lift up your voices.

Who is the king of glory; how shall we call him? He is Emmanuel, the promised of ages. R./

In all of Galilee, in city or village, he goes among his people curing their illness. R./

Sing then of David's son, our savior and brother; In all of Galilee was never another. R./

He gave his life for us the pledge of salvation, He took upon himself the sins of the nation. R./

He conquered sin and death; he truly has risen, and he will share with us his heavenly vision. R./

Glory to God

Marty Haugen

R./ Glory to God, glory to God, glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. R./

Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our Prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. R./

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen, Amen! R./

Psalm 22

My God, My God, Why have you abandoned me?

Offeratory Song

O Sacred Head, Surrounded

Johann Sebastian Bach

O sacred Head surrounded By crown of piercing thorn! O bleeding Head, so wounded, Reviled and put to scorn! The pow'r of death comes o'er you, The glow of life decays, Yet angel hosts adore you and tremble as they gaze.

In this your bitter passion, good shepherd think of me. With your most kind compassion, unworthy though I be. Beneath your cross abiding, forever I would rest. In your dear love confiding, and with your presence blest.

What language shall I borrow to thank you dearest friend? For this your dying sorrow, your mercy without end? Lord make me yours forever, a loyal servant true. And let me never, never outlive my love for you.

Communion Song

Behold The Lamb

Martin Willett

Those who were in the dark are thankful for the sunlight; we who live, we who die are grateful for his gift, thankful for his love.

R./ Behold, behold the Lamb of God. All who eat, all who drink shall live; and all, all who dwell in God shall come to know his glory.

Peaceful now, those whose hearts are blessed with understanding of the wheat, of the wine united with his word and the love we share. R./

Gentle one, Child of God, join with us at this table. Bless our lives; nourish all who hunger for this feast; shelter them with peace. R./

Lord of all, give us light. Deliver us from evil. Make us one; be our shield. Make still the winds that blow; cradle us with love. R./

Closing Song

Jerusalem, My Destiny

Rory Cooney

R./ I have fixed my eyes on your hills, Jerusalem, my Destiny! Though I cannot see the end for me, I cannot turn away. We have set our hearts for the way; this journey is our destiny. Let no one walk alone. The journey makes us one.

Other spirits, lesser gods, have courted me with lies. Here among you I have found a truth that bids me rise. R./

See, I leave the past behind; a new land calls to me. Here among you now I find a glimpse of what might be. R./

In my thirst, you let me drink the waters of your life, Here among you I have met, the Savior, Jesus Christ. R./
