17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field." - Mt 13:44

The Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 10, 2026

The people of Samaria come to worship the Lord and receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. It is this same Spirit that leads us into the truth. In the body, Jesus was put to death; in the Spirit, he was raised to life. We are called to this same glory.

POPE LEO'S TRIP TO AFRICA

Beloved Parishioners,

I share with you a reflection on Pope Leo XIV's visit to Africa. On his third ever international journey since his election as the supreme Pontiff, from 13 April to 23 April 2026, His Holiness Pope Leo XIV, completed a historic 11-day apostolic journey to Africa across four nations: Algeria, Cameroon, Angola, and Equatorial Guinea. Angola and Equatorial Guinea are strongly Catholic-majority nations; Cameroon holds a substantial Catholic minority within a plural Christian environment, while Algeria represents a tiny Catholic presence within a predominantly Muslim society. Obviously, it is notable that far beyond diplomatic symbolism or state protocol, the Pope's visit to Africa functions as a pastoral and prophetic engagement with a continent that is increasingly central to the life and future of global Catholicism.

From 13–15 April, Pope Leo made a spiritual homage to the Land that holds spiritual legacies of the founder of the Augustinian Order, St. Augustine — Algeria. This was the first-ever time Algeria received a pope. In Algiers and Annaba, the Pope, himself an Augustinian, visited the ruins of Hippo, the defunct Episcopal See of Saint Augustine, to honor this prolific Doctor of grace. During his stay in Algeria, the Pope visited the Great Mosque of Algiers to promote Interreligious dialogue and peaceful coexistence between Christians and Muslims. Here, the Pope's emphasis was on peaceful coexistence, mutual respect, and shared human dignity, in continuity with the vision of Vatican II.

While in Cameroon from 15–18 April, the Pope made a clarion call for unity. In Yaoundé and Bamenda, he addressed the “Anglophone crisis” and urged for an end to the “chains of corruption”. Additionally, he visited the Ngul Zamba Orphanage, meeting with children and students to promote youth apostolate.

Further, in Angola from 18–21 April, Pope Leo XIV, a pilgrimage of Hope, he prayed the Rosary at the Mama Muxima Marian Shrine, a site historically linked to the Atlantic slave trade. In meetings with President João Lourenço, he moved the cause of social justice and challenged leaders to break the cycle of resource exploitation and corruption. By so doing, manifesting the Catholic social teaching.

In the last leg of his stay in Africa, Pope Leo visited Equatorial Guinea from 21–23 April. In a highlight of the trip and an extension of love and mercy, the Pope visited the Bata Prison during a heavy rainstorm, praying the “Our Father” with inmates and declaring that “no one is excluded from God's love.” He further visited the Jean-Pierre Olié Psychiatric Hospital in Malabo to support mental health advocacy, expressing strongly and concretely all the teachings of the Church about corporal works of mercy and preferential option for the poor and marginalized. The vivacity and refreshment that followed Pope Leo XIV's apostolic journey to Africa reveal a major ecclesial shift in which Africa is no longer viewed merely as a mission territory but as a vital center of Catholic vitality, vocations, and missionary dynamism. Africa is, without doubt, increasingly central to the future of global Catholicism, both demographically and spiritually.

At the same time, the Pope's visit took place in countries like Cameroon and Angola with complex political and social realities marked by challenges of governance, corruption concerns, economic inequality, and ethnic or social tensions. Due to this, the Pope's presence inevitably carries interpretive tension. Some critics question whether such visits risk being appropriated for political legitimacy by ruling elites. However, within Catholic understanding, the Pope's mission is directed primarily toward the people of God rather than political regimes. His presence ought to be therefore understood as pastoral solidarity which allows the Church to accompany suffering communities without abandoning them to isolation, rather than political endorsement of any kind.

In conclusion, Pope Leo XIV's visit to Africa can be understood as a living expression of the Church's self-understanding as missionary, pastoral, and prophetic. It is a Church that walks with its people, shares in their struggles, proclaims hope in Christ, and remains committed in the conviction that the Gospel is not merely an idea to be believed but a life to be lived within history.

Theme: Jesus Gives His Spirit to Those Who Love Him and Keep His Commandment

6th Sunday of Easter Year A, May 10, 2026

First Reading Acts 8:5-8, 14-17, Second Reading 1 Peter 3:15-18, Gospel John 14:15-21

The first reading from the Acts of Apostles narrates the Samaritans' acceptance of the gospel message taken to them by Philip. In the second reading Peter encourages us never to give up our faith due to the persecution and challenges we may encounter since Jesus first suffered for us and left us an example to follow. Jesus says in the Gospel "If you love me, you will keep my commandment."

One significant event that happened before Philip took the gospel to Samaria was the execution of Stephen which was approved by Saul (Paul) and the persecution of Christians. In Acts 8:1-4 it says "And on that day a great persecution arose against the church in Jerusalem; and they were all scattered throughout the region of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. Devout men buried Stephen and made great lamentation over him. But Saul laid waste the Church and entering house after house, he dragged off men and women and committed them to prison. Now those who were scattered went about preaching the word." This shows that persecution of Christians has been there from the beginning of the early Church, but the Church survived because God's Spirit was with the Church all the time and most importantly that those who have accepted the message never allowed persecution to be an obstacle to proclaiming the power in the word of God and spreading the gospel message.

Today, the Church faces many attacks from every angle in family life, marriage institution, the priesthood, and her teaching on human life. There is a deliberate attempt to dethrone God and the teachings of Jesus Christ and the Church from our society. There is concerted effort to assign the human person the role of God and make the Church teaching less important today. As God's divine institution His Spirit will always guide the church because he has made a promise that "the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it." (Mt 16:18.) But most importantly, her survival depends on how we believers are willing to remain firm to defend the faith, amidst these persecutions and attacks. We are invited like Philip to proclaim our belief strongly against all these attacks.

This is a similar message St. Peter gives in the second reading, where he encourages us "that it is better to suffer for doing good, if that be the will of God, than for doing evil." During the Easter season all our second readings come from the letter of St. Peter in which he exalts the Christians to keep up the faith that have been received from Christ. The major justification for our faith in Christ is that Jesus died and rose from the dead and that is why we are confident that our belief is credible and our faith certain. This explains our hope in Christ and St. Peter wants us to be ready to give that as our reason for our faith. It also means that because we are certain of our conviction, we should be ready to suffer for doing good than give in to doing evil.

Jesus says in the gospel "If you love me, you will keep my commandment." Jesus implies in this statement that there is only one test of love and that is obedience. It was by his obedience that Jesus showed his love of God, and it is by our obedience that we must show our love for Jesus. To Jesus real love is not an easy thing but it is shown only in true obedience. This is also why in 1 Sam 15:22 when Saul gives reason that he did not carry out the instructions given to him by the prophet because he kept some of the sheep and oxen to sacrifice to the Lord, Samuel replied, "Does the Lord, delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the Lord? To obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed is better than the fat of rams." The true test of our love for Jesus is our ability to keep to what he teaches. Happy Sunday to you all.

Fabiola was a rich noblewoman in ancient Rome and a friend of St. Jerome. She gave the Church all her wealth, and her time and efforts as well. She founded a hospital in Rome where she cared for the poor and sick. This was very unusual for a rich woman in those times. She died in 399

Forming Courageous Catholics in the Virtues of Christ

Beloved Parishioners,

As we enter the beautiful month of May, dedicated to our Blessed Mother, Mary, we also come to the close of another wonderful school year. We are deeply grateful for your continued support of our school. Through your generous donations, participation in fundraisers, and faithful prayers, you help make our mission possible.

April was a joyful and busy month as we celebrated Easter, Earth Day, and our spring musical, Hippy Flower Power. These events highlighted the spirit, creativity, and faith of our students. We also celebrated life through our cherished kindergarten and second-grade tradition of hatching baby chicks.

We are pleased to announce the formation of our new School Board. We warmly welcome our new Board President, Ms. Kathy Williams, a dedicated and longtime volunteer in our community. We also recognize our Vice President, Tanya Sunstrum, and our Secretary, Valerie Sandall. We look forward to their leadership and the continued service of all our board members.

As summer approaches, we invite you to take part in our Summer Program, open to parishioners with children in preschool through 6th grade. The cost is $80 per week. For more information, please contact the school office at (928) 855-0154.

Lastly, on May 20, 2026, at 5:30 PM Mass, we will celebrate our 8th-grade students with a Graduation Mass. This Mass is open to all parishioners who wish to join us. We will pray for them as they conclude their time at our school.

During this special month of Mary, may we look to her as a model of faith, humility, and love, and strive to follow her example in our daily lives.

Thank you for your ongoing support. May God bless you always.
