Pentecost Sunday

May 24, 2026

All of us have been baptized into one and the same Spirit. That same Spirit, the Advocate, was given as gift to the disciples to strengthen them to go forth in the name of the Lord, "to renew the face of the earth".

Pastor's Corner

PENTECOST: THE SPIRIT OF GOD IN THE FINGER OF MORNING

Beloved Parishioners,

Happy Pentecost celebration even as I take my vacation far away from the United States, I still enjoy sharing reflections with you every Sunday to maintain that bond of love we share together. The theme of my reflection draws its central motif from the poetic imagery of the evocative hymn "Spirit of God in the Clear Running Water" by Miriam Therese Winter in 1965. As on the day of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit descended and breathed new life on the apostles, a moment that brought holistic renewal to the Church (NRSV Acts 2:1-4). Hence, the richly poetic and theological lyrics "Spirit of God in the finger of morning" remind us of that day of renewal. The symbolism of "morning" represents new creation, resurrection and hope amidst darkness. On the other hand, the "finger" suggests God delicately touching creation, much like how the sunlight illumines the earth. Thus, the hymn communicates a theology of God's immanence: God is not distant, he is mysteriously present within us, whispering through nature and history.

The Holy Spirit has come to renew the face of the earth. The feast of Pentecost stands as one of the most radiant mysteries in the life of the Church. Before the Holy Spirit descended on the apostles, the upper room once shrouded in fear and uncertainties, suddenly became a furnace of divine fire. Like the dry bones in Ezekiel's vision (NRSV 37:1-10), the apostles were transformed from trembling followers into blazing witnesses of Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, Pentecost is not a mere memory lost in history; it is the heartbeat of the Church, the breath of God moving swiftly through weary souls, perplexed families and broken nations today.

The Holy Spirit descended not merely as a gentle symbol of faith, but as a consuming flame that unsettles complacency and awakens holiness of life. According to Saint Augustine (Hill, 1993), through the Holy Spirit scattered humanity is gathered into one family: communion of love, reversing the confusion of the Tower of Babel. So, when the Holy Spirit takes possession of us, cold hearts blaze, timid tongues sing, and faith moves from the head to the marrow of the soul. Similarly, John Chrysostom (1889) compared Pentecost to a mighty river overflowing its bank, carrying divine grace into the desert of the human heart. Hence, our hearts of stone will be replaced with a heart of flesh. It is indeed our mission to evangelize the world through the power of the Holy Spirit. I encourage you to preach "Lumen Gentium," go beyond the comfort of your closed doors and become the light in the world. I pray that the gift of the Holy Spirit may help us to love, be our consoler and delightful guest. Father of the poor, heal our wounds and give us joy which never ends, Amen.

Holy Spirit, our life and love!

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Theme: They Spoke the Language of Love

Pentecost Sunday Year A, May 24, 2026

First Reading Acts 2:1-11, Second Reading 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13, Gospel John 20:19-23

Pentecost is the feast of the birth of the Church. It is the feast of the church's birthday because it is on this day that the church came into existence. Before the coming of the Holy Spirit on the apostles, they were all in one room for fear of the Jews; they could not go out. However, when the Holy Spirit came upon them, they were empowered and they went out with courage and started proclaiming the great news of salvation. That is why we say that the Church came into existence on this day.

There are few lessons we can learn from the events of today and the readings of the Mass on this great feast day of the church. In the first reading they were all in one place and each person is locked up in himself or herself. Thus, they could not understand the other person. When we are closed up within ourselves, we cannot understand the other person. In the Gospel we were told that the door was locked for fear of the Jews. So being locked into oneself is like locking oneself out from the God's Holy Spirit. When we open up ourselves, we see the beauty in the other and relate with one another peacefully. When we open up ourselves God's Holy Spirit comes into our lives to take control and possession.

Jesus opens the door and enters and then gave the Apostles the Holy Spirit which now strengthened them and gave them power to preach the Gospel message and fulfill the mission that Christ had given them. For us to receive the Holy Spirit we need to open the doors of our heart and allow God to take control. We need to remove fear which is a great obstacle to realizing God's potential in our lives. We need to speak the language of love which is understood by everyone.

The feast of Pentecost today reminds us of the consolation and comforting power of the Spirit whom Jesus called the "Comforter". As a mother holds a wounded and frightened child, and with her breath inspires trust, rekindles confidence, and gives life back again, so the Holy Spirit is with us in times when we are blown down, too weak to pray and troubled to rise from our place. He will hold us and breathe us back into life again. Should we wither and fade, he will gather us up in his arms.

My dear brothers and sisters, let us trust in the power of the Holy Spirit to change our lives and our situation. Let us call on the Holy Spirit when we are in trouble and he will answer us. Let us invoke the Holy Spirit because he is God and would always come to our help. Let us from today invoke the Holy Spirit in every situation of our life.

Happy Feast Day!

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.
