Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 28, 2026

If we have died with Christ, we believe we shall also live with him. He invites us to take up our cross and follow him, and to respond to those who are in need, as did the woman who extended hospitality to Elisha the prophet. Blessed is she who walked in the countenance of the Lord.

Pastor's Corner

Thank You My Beloved Parishioners

Beloved Parishioners,

The gospel of today captures clearly the amazing blessing you, the beloved parishioners of Our Lady of the Lake have been to me as your priest and pastor these few years I have been with you. I came back to this parish on October 30, 2020, when I was asked by Bishop Olmsted to return to Our Lady of the Lake to serve the good people of this parish. I had no problem saying "YES" to the request of the Bishop as I know the people and how they love and cherish their priest. Thereafter in April of 2022 I was asked to be your pastor as parochial administrator. This also I accepted with my whole heart because I know how generous you people are.

As your priest and minister you prayed for me, cared for me and provided for me. Out of the generosity of your heart you never allowed me to suffer any lack and it is on this basis that I think that today's gospel reading is very timely as Jesus assures blessings both here and in the world to come on anyone who gives a cup of cold water to a minister of God because the person is a prophet. On my part you have given me more than just a cup of cold water. You gave me your time, your love, you prayed for me and you provided for my needs and that of my local village far away in Africa. You were everything to me and that is the reason the words of Jesus in the gospel of this Sunday's liturgy will be manifested in your life. You will surely be blessed and rewarded.

In this parish I found faith, I have a people to call my family, I found support, I found a home, and I have found love that transforms. Despite my weaknesses and challenges you accepted me as I am without judging me. As I leave OLL to OLPH I want to assure equally that my prayers will be with you that those blessings promised by our Lord in today's gospel would be yours in full measure. May you never lack the blessings from above that bring peace and joy. Let me also mention that we have been able to accomplish a lot in this parish within these few years of my journey with you as your parochial administrator because of your trust and confidence in me. It gives me great joy how many of you stepped forward to take up certain responsibilities whenever there was a call for things that needed to be addressed in the parish.

Finally, as I go to a new parish I will ask for your prayers and I pray for you. I am sure the new priests who are coming will do a great more than me and I ask you to give them also the same support. My beloved parishioners I leave you with these words, God is Real and He comes to our aid whenever we call him, he never abandons us even when it seems he is silent.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Theme: Kindness to God's Prophets

13th Sunday In Ordinary Time, Year A, June 28, 2026

First Reading: 2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a, Second Reading: Romans 6:3-4,8-11, Gospel: Matthew 10:37-42

The incident in the life of the Prophet Elisha and the gospel message are testimonies of God's rewards to his prophets. God rewarded the woman for her help by giving her a child. This incident is exemplary because at this time in Israel the people had abandoned the true worship of God and embraced the pagan religion so for her to keep her faith and practice kindness to a true prophet of God is noble. The abandonment of their true faith led to the Assyrian invasion that led to exile.

This little incident is a lesson for all of us, in our society today God is gradually being pushed out of schools, families and nations. People think their modern gods of science, technology and false philosophy are something they can rely on. Today half of the world's rulers deny there is God, and a big percentage of the other half act as if there were no God. The result of such attitude is very disastrous. We have torn to shreds the one true charter which can provide peace on earth and our society and that is a true love of God and obedience to his commandment. Nature abhors a vacuum, so when God is thrown out of our school, families and society then evil occupies it and that is what we suffer today. We can spend millions sending people to the moon and back and without morality and fear of God most of these would not guarantee peace and joy.

The other part of today's message is the blessings that accompany those who are charitable to God's prophet. Kindness to God's messengers has multiple blessings attached to it and that is why we should never grow weary of being generous to the church and her ministers. Jesus summarizes it thus, "Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple, Amen I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward." Do not give up in your support or being charitable especially to the prophets of God for Jesus himself has given that assurance that they must receive their reward.

Fr. Tony Okolo C.S.Sp., V.F.

Catholic Daughters of the Americas
Elect New Officers

The Catholic Daughters of the Americas Court of Our Lady of the Lake recently installed its newly elected officers. The Catholic Daughters are dedicated to supporting the Church, strengthening their faith, and serving those in need through prayer, fellowship, and charitable works.

The newly elected officers are:

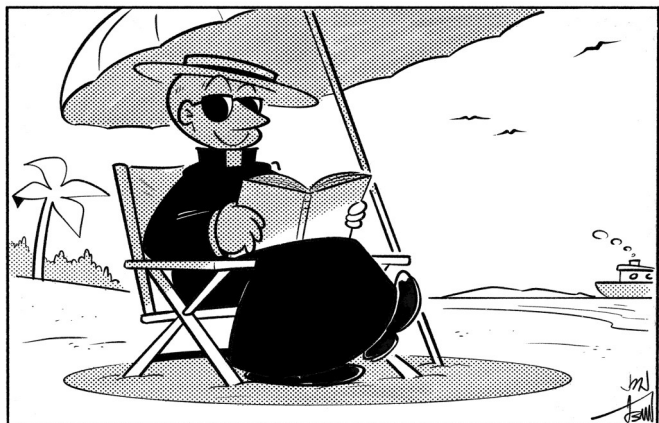

Robbin Moore – Regent
Elizabeth Drechsler – Vice Regent
Sherry Ketner – Recording Secretary
Pat Sandoval – Treasurer
Pat Buck – Financial Secretary

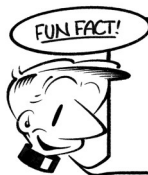

We congratulate these women as they begin their new terms of leadership and thank them for their willingness to serve our parish community. Please keep them in your prayers as they continue the Catholic Daughters' mission of faith, service, and love.

"Unity and Charity" remains the guiding principle of the Catholic Daughters as they work to make a positive difference in our parish and community. Humanity does seem determined to create committees for everything, but when those committees are made up of people willing to serve others, that's a pretty good thing.

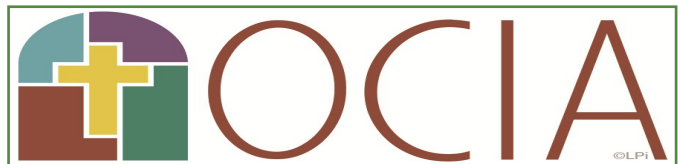

"What do you call it when a priest spends the weekend at the beach?"

"Sancti-Vacation!"

We all need a vacation from time to time so we can relax and recuperate. Even our priests go on vacation!

Thinking about becoming Catholic? Do you know someone who is thinking about the Catholic faith? Are you an adult Catholic who still needs the sacraments of Holy Eucharist or Confirmation? A yes to any of the above means that we would like to invite you to the OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults). The OCIA is the official opportunity for inquiry into the Catholic Faith. We present Catholic teaching and faith formation. You get to ask all your questions. For more information or to get started please call Martha in the office at 928-855-2685.

Liturgical Life

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Mini Reflection: It's easy to receive Jesus, or at least the Jesus presented to us by pop culture. But it's harder to receive God the Son, consubstantial with God the Father who sent him — the one from the Old Testament who says and does a bunch of things that make modern people uncomfortable.

Receiving

I receive a lot of junk mail. I'm on a bunch of people's asking-for-money lists, and so were the people who owned this house before me, and when you put it all together, it results in quite the pile of paper accumulating on my counter.

I leave it there because, while I have received this mail, I don't want to receive it. Do you see the difference? To really receive someone or something, you have to look at it, assess it, make space for it. Accept it. Decide it will have a place in your home or your life or whatever, and give it that place.

It's what the righteous woman did with Elisha. She received him. She had a room all ready, waiting for him, even when he wasn't there.

But I refuse to receive the junk mail. I don't have space for it, in my head or on my counter, so after a day or two, I just throw it away without looking through it.

"Whoever receives me receives the one who sent me," Jesus tells us in the Gospel of Matthew.

But what does that mean, exactly?

It's easy to receive Jesus, or at least to receive the Jesus presented to us by modern imagination — that laidback hippie who lets anyone sit at his table, no questions asked. But it's harder to receive the Christ, God the Son, who is consubstantial with God the Father who sent him.

Ah, yes, God the Father — maybe you've heard of Him? He's the one from the Old Testament who says and does a bunch of things that make modern people uncomfortable.

That's a little more of a challenge, isn't it? Takes a little bit more thought. A little more assessment. A little more making-space.

Can we do it? Well, we have to find a way. Because for the record, laidback hippie Jesus doesn't exist. And Old Testament God makes a lot of sense, if you give Him a little thought. If you make a little space.

So make the space. Receive.

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

I've heard of the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. What are they, and what's the difference?

Answer:

As God has shown us mercy, so too are we called to show mercy to those we encounter. We see mercy throughout the Gospels, but the parable in Matthew 25 forms the foundation for the first set of Works of Mercy. This parable of the last judgment shows each person being asked how well they cared for those around them, and being reminded that this care for those in need is care for God Himself. Each person is asked if they have fed the hungry, given drink to the thirsty, clothed the naked, sheltered the stranger, cared for the sick, and visited the imprisoned. These — along with burying the dead — are the Corporal Works of Mercy, as they primarily concern the physical life of a person.

The list of the Spiritual Works of Mercy developed later. These actions of love primarily concern the inner life of a person. They are instructing the ignorant, counseling the doubtful, admonishing sinners, bearing wrongs patiently, forgiving offenses, comforting the afflicted, and praying for both the living and the dead. All of these actions are concrete ways of bringing the love of God into the world.

Prayer

Lord, thank you for giving me water to drink when I am thirsty.

Mission for the Week

I will give my parents a cup of cool water when they are tired.

Sharing the Gospel

Welcome people to your home, school, and church. Offer visitors a cup of water, tea, coffee, hot chocolate, or juice. Share your food with those who are hungry. Share your clothing with those who need clothing. Find shelter for the homeless. Pray for the sick. Bury the dead. When disaster strikes, help people rebuild. When you welcome others, you welcome Jesus Christ. What you do for others, you do for God.
